Van Cleaves Home From Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin J. Van-Cleave have returned from a 9000 mile automobile trip to the east coast. The southern route was taken to Miami, Fla., where they spent a week at the Van-Cleave Hotel, and then to Houston and New Orleans. After a flight out to Havana they traveled up the east coast of Florida to Atlanta, Ga., and visited Birmingham, and Jackson, Miss., then west to San Diego and up the Pacific coast highway. They saw and filmed the Sun Festival at El Paso on New Year's Day.

Two Celebrate Birthdays

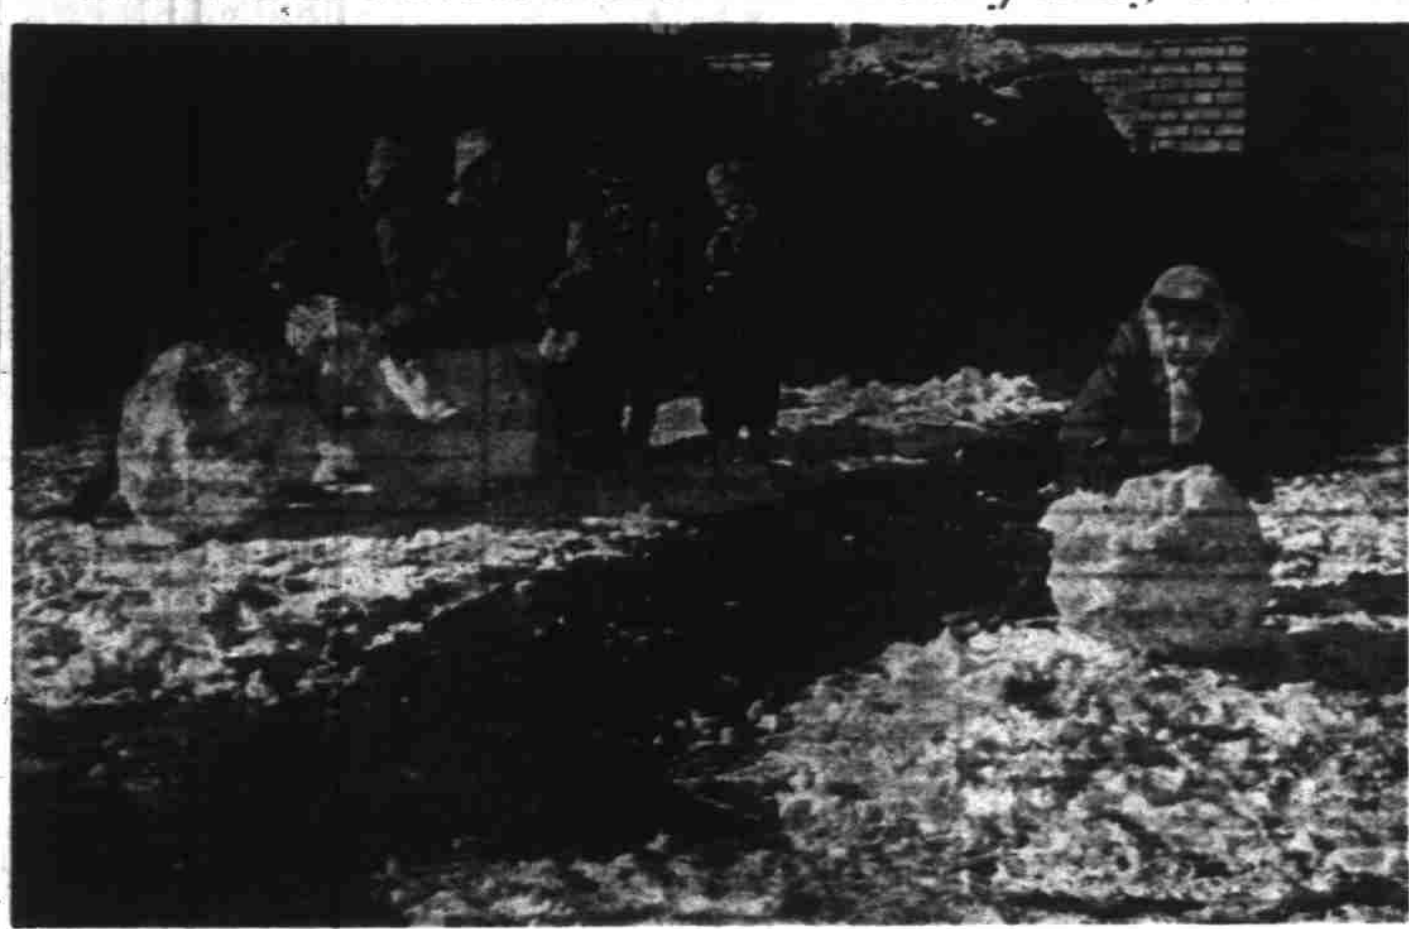

Mrs. Mary E. Croshaw celebrated her 74th birthday Sunday at her home, 1020 Trade street, together with her great-granddaughter, Norma Jean Totten, who observed her 5th birthday.

Mrs. Hartwell New Secretary

Duties of office secretary and bookkeeper for the YMCA will be assumed by Mrs. Milton Hartwell, 3730 Ellsworth street, when the resignation of Mrs. Carlton Greider becomes effective March 1. Mrs. Greider has held the position since August 1946.

Following her graduation from the University of Oregon with a B.S. in business administration in 1942, Mrs. Hartwell did case work for the Clackamas county public welfare commission and industrial counseling for the Swan Island Shipyard. She also has experience with the Home Service Department of the American Red Cross in Portland and Salem.

They Get a New Snowman Every Day or So

Older folks may be growing tired of all the snow, but it is still fun for the kids. Above is a group of youngsters taking time out at the Children's Workshop kindergarten operated by Mrs. Allison Froman at 1099 S. High st. In the group are Bill Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Brown; Cathy Sprague, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sprague; Margaret Laneofield, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. M. Laneofield; Pamela Burgoyne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Burgoyne; Sarah Cutshaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harland Cutshaw; Anne and Martha Froman, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Allison Froman; and Elaine Standish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Standish. More Bowlers Reach Finals

Four men and two women advanced to the finals of The Statesman bowling tournament as a result of keegling action on Capitol alleys during the week which ended Saturday.

Pearl Smith's 877 series topped all scores for the week. Other men earning berths in the finals were Roy Farley, 833; Artie Watson, 841 and George Causey 828.

The tourney swings into its third and last round this week, and those who failed to qualify for the finals in earlier rounds may take another crack at it this week. Deadline is midnight Saturday.

Finals are slated to follow the third round. The top four finishers in each round will compete in the finals.

Muriel Pugh and Alberta Thompson moved into the women's finals with scores of 744 and 754, respectively.
