Miss Duerr Now
Mrs. Kasper

MT. ANGEL—Miss Erna Duerr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Duerr of Mt. Angel, became the bride of Richard Kasper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Kasper of Salem, at a double ring ceremony at St. Mary's Catholic church Thursday morning, February 10, at 8:15 o'clock. Rev. Vincent Koppert officiated at the nuptial high mass. Miss Eustelle Bauman sang with Miss Helen Keber at the organ.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore traditional satin with fitted bodice, with long sleeves and sweetheart neckline and a long train. Her fingertip veil, lace-edged, was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a crescent bouquet of carnations and pink roses.

Miss Betty Kasper, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Her gown was pale green tulle with fitted bodice, with scalloped neckline and marquisette yoke and full skirt. She wore matching hat and mitts and carried cascading bouquet of pink carnations.

The three sisters of the bride, Miss Viola Duerr, Mrs. Maurice Nissen and Mrs. Joseph Messer, acted as bridesmaids. They wore gowns of lavender tulle identical to that of the maid of honor, matching hats and mitts and carried cascade bouquets of yellow carnations.

Mrs. Duerr wore a black dress with white accessories and rosebud corsage for her daughter's wedding and the groom's mother also wore black with white rosebud corsage.

Clemm Duerr of Spokane, Washington, cousin of the bride, acted as best man for Mr. Kasper. Ushers were Maurice Nissen, Joseph Messer and Ernest Zielinski.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Legion hall for the bridal party and the immediate families. Serving were Pauline Weiss, Eleanor and Mary Ann Hauth.

A reception followed in the afternoon. Mrs. Duane Sears, sister of the groom, cut the cake and Miss Pauline Weiss passed the guest book. Serving were Bernadette Hauth, Romona Hasing, LaVonne Frey.

After a wedding dance at the Legion hall, Mr. and Mrs. Kasper left on a wedding trip and upon their return will make their home on a farm near Salem. For going away the bride chose a gray coat with matching accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Disbrow-Atwood
Nuptials Held

FOUR CORNERS — Miss Shirley Rosalie Atwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford La Valley, and Thomas George Disbrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Fasching, were married Tuesday, February 8 at a quiet wedding in the First Methodist church parsonage. The Rev. Brooks Moore read the service at 8:30 o'clock before the immediate families and friends.

Mr. La Valley gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a rose wool gabardine dressmaker suit with matching hat and black accessories, with a corsage of pink and white carnations.

Her attendant was Miss Mary Camazin. Her dressmaker suit was navy blue with green accessories. She wore a corsage of pink carnations. Edison La Valley, brother of the bride, was best man.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. La Valley chose a green wool ensemble with black accessories and Mrs. Fasching wore black with matching accessories.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Fasching home at 290 W. Ewald st. Mrs. Harvey Fasching poured and Mrs. Nellie Harr and Mrs. Flavia Sellers assisted with the serving.

Mr. Disbrow is a navy veteran, having served in the Pacific area. He is employed at the Capitol theatre. They will be at home at 180 Union st., Salem.

Delta Gamma Mothers will meet at the chapter house Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Hostesses will be Mrs. W. D. Gardner, president of the group, and Mrs. C. S. Nelson.
