Elliott Prairie Folk Visiting In California

ELLIOTT PRAIRIE — Aloha Lee Edland and her friend Evelyn Frederickson of Aurora went to San Francisco, Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fauske were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Mather at Portland last week.

Nellie Thyker was a guest Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hanson at Silverton.

Mrs. Mary Thyker spent Friday with the Richard Nelsons of Silverton.

Mrs. William Bushman returned Wednesday from Scappoose where she was assisting in the care of her brother-in-law, Charles Bushman, who died February 7.

Mrs. A. Hugel of Grand Prairie, Alberta, Canada has been visiting her cousins, the N. J. Yoders, Paul Burkerts and Ben Burkerts.

Mrs. Marie Sedilek entertained at afternoon tea Thursday for Mrs. Violet Timm and Virginia Horner. Mrs. Mabel Brandt was hostess Thursday to an all day meeting of the Elliott Prairie Ladies Aid. Nineteen members braved the bad roads, wind and rain to be present. The inconvenience of modern conveniences, when there was no electric power to run them caused much amusement among the group, as they told of difficulties of modern housekeeping and preparing a hot dish for the dinner on their electric ranges. Cold salads were much in prevalence at their dinner. Electric power was off for several hours, when several electric poles were blown down from the high wind Wednesday night.

Mrs. Ben Burkert has been very ill at her home. Her daughter, Mrs. Janet Jones of Salem has been caring for her.

Sunday guests of the Ingval Edlands were Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Holland and Edythe of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. James McEwen of Lakeside, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ronglien, Curtis and granddaughter Linda of Molalla.

Middle Grove Scouts Observe Anniversary Party

MIDDLE GROVE — Anniversary of the founding of the first Boy Scout troops was observed by the members of Middle Grove troop, parents, the committee members and their families, at the school house Tuesday.

Covered dish dinner was served and the troop members were presented with membership cards and two new members were inducted. Larry Griffin and Wildon Chamberlain.

Troop charter was given to Mrs. Lewis Patterson, as president of the community club, troop sponsor. It will be shown at a regular community club meeting and then turned over to the committee chairman.

Donald Bassett was presented with his six year award pin; Dean Way his second class pin and Dick Bye three merit badges, for wood-working, mechanical drawing and firemanship. Contests included a knot tying between Leonard Hammer, Marvin Sage, Wildon Chamberlain, Delbert Bolton and Lewis Patterson.

Fire making by friction, between Jack Wikoff and Leonard Hammer; a demonstration in lashing, where limbs are tied for camp equipment, between Jim Kuenzi, Jack Wikoff and Dick Bye; and a humorous contest "Pancake Flip-pin" between Jack Wikoff, sr. and his son, won by Jack Wikoff, jr. An original poem by Mrs. Robert Pickrel, written in honor of the troop was read.

Special guests, the scoutmaster, Robert Pickrel and Mrs. Pickrel and daughter, assistant scoutmaster, Donald Bassett, committee members and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wagers, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Kuenzi, Mr. and Mrs. William Klee, Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Keppinger and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Van Leanen and Mrs. Patterson whose husband is a member.

Parents present were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bassett, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hammer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Way, Mr. and Mrs. John Anglin, Mr. and Mrs. Loran Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Scharf, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bye, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson, and Mr. and Mrs. George Hardy, with troop members, Dick Bye, Dean Way, Jack Wikoff, Edwin Stahl, Delbert Bolton, Leonard Hammer, Jim Kuenzi, Lewis Patterson, Marvin Cagle and the two new members.

General Anthony Wayne was, like Washington a surveyor in his youth.
