

Benefit Parties . . .

Also taking a spotlight during February along with the many dances and concerts are benefit parties.

Friday, February 25 has been set as the date for the Salem Lions club auxiliary benefit fashion bridge, which will be held at the Salem Women's clubhouse at 1:30 o'clock. A dessert luncheon will be served during which spring fashions will be shown by Grace's Ready to Wear.

Proceeds from the affair will go to the Salem Memorial hospital to equip the new nursery. The interested public is invited to attend and those wishing reservations are asked to call Mrs. Jacob Foss or Mrs. Lee E. Thomas.

Models for the style show will be Mrs. Charles T. Martin, jr., Mrs. W. Jerry Scott, Miss Thais Crandall and Miss Olga Stefanick. Rosanne Clark (Mrs. Charles) will be the commentator and the Willamette university string quartet will play while the styles are being shown. Featured in the show will be spring sports clothes, suits, coats, casuals, informal and evening gowns.

Mrs. Harold Heiserman is chairman of the affair with Mrs. W. Jerry Scott as co-chairman. Mrs. Malvin Rudd heads the ticket committee and on the hostess committee are Mrs. Arthur Erickson and Mrs. H. E. Gilbert.

Benefit Thursday

On this week's slate is the Salem Woman's club benefit card party at the clubhouse on Thursday afternoon. A dessert luncheon will be served at one o'clock with bridge, pinochle, or other card games in play. The benefit is to raise money to assist the scholarship loan fund of the federation. Those wishing reservations are asked to call Mrs. Merle Travis or Mrs. Robert Hutcheon.

The interested public is invited to attend and guests are asked to bring their own card accessories. Mrs. George W. Alling heads the directorate for the affair.

Our Valentine Girls . . .

Five attractive young high school girls posed for our Valentine picture and from the left sitting clockwise are Shirley Karsten, in the plaid dress, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Karsten, Marilyn Power, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Power, Nancy Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Burr Miller, Jean Clement, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norris D. Clement, and Ann Carson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Carson. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

Legislative Set in Social Whirl . .

By Jeryne English, Society Editor

The legislative contingent is busy making dates on their calendars for dinners, luncheons and supper parties.

McKays to Entertain

Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay are entertaining with three affairs this week at their Jerris avenue home. Monday night the McKays have invited members of the senate and their wives to a smorgasbord dinner with an informal evening following. House dinners will be held Wednesday and Thursday nights with the McKays inviting the state representatives and their wives to smorgasbord dinners.

Tuesday will be Mrs. McKay's day at home with all interested townspeople and out-of-town guests invited to call informally during the afternoon.

Dinner at Pearson's

State Treasurer and Mrs. Walter J. Pearson will be dinner hosts Tuesday night at their North Summer street residence. Covers will be placed for Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay, Secretary of State and Mrs. Earl T. Newbry, President of the Senate and Mrs. William E. Walsh, Speaker of the House and Mrs. Frank VanDyke and the hosts.

Guard to Be Hosts

Members of the National Guard association of Oregon will be hosts for their biennial affair Tuesday night at the Senator hotel in compliment to members of the military affairs committees of the senate and house, Governor Douglas McKay, Secretary of State Earl Newbry, State Treasurer Walter Pearson, President of the Senate William Walsh, Speaker of the House Frank VanDyke and the legislative press. Senator Howard Belton of Canby and Rep. Henry Semon of Klamath Falls head the military affairs committees.

Hosts for the dinner are Maj. General Thomas E. Rilea, Brig. Gen. Raymond F. Olson, Brig. Gen. H. G. Maisson, all of Salem, Brig. Gen. H. C. Brumbaugh, B. G. Gen. James S. Gay, Brig. Gen. R. P. Cowgill, Gen. W. D. Jackson, Col. F. L. Wiegand, Col. Gerald G. Cochran, all of Portland, Col. Harold A. Taylor, McMinnville, Col. William Hugh Adams and Lt. Harvey Latham, Salem.

A Secretaries Reunion

Mrs. Arthur Knox has sent out invitations to a 6:30 o'clock buffet supper for Thursday night at her country home on Park Lane. The affair will honor the senate secretaries with whom Mrs. Knox formerly worked and will be a reunion with several coming from out-of-town. Covers will be placed for 30 guests.

Bidden to Dinner

Major General and Mrs. Thomas E. Rilea and Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Raymond F. Olson will be hosts for a dinner party on Monday night, February 21 at the Marion hotel. Their guests will be Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay, Secretary of State and Mrs. Earl T. Newbry, State Treasurer and Mrs. Walter J. Pearson, President and Mrs. William E. Walsh, Speaker and Mrs. Frank VanDyke and Brig. Gen. and Mrs. H. G. Maisson.

Salem Women Hostesses

Wives of the Marion county representatives are planning a dinner party for Tuesday, February 22 at the Legion club in compliment to the wives of state representatives, who are here during the session. Hostesses for the affair will be Mrs. W. W. Chadwick, Mrs. Frank Doerfler, Mrs. John Steelhammer and Mrs. Douglas Yeater.

Arleen Frogley Tells Truth . . .

The engagement of Miss Arleen Frogley to Keith Olson was announced on Saturday night during the Delta Zeta sorority house dance on the Oregon State college campus. The news was told when lights went off just before intermission to reveal the names of the engaged couple in luminous paint on a large red heart.

The bride-elect, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Frogley of Salem, is a graduate of Salem schools and formerly attended Oregon State college. She is now a student at Oregon College of Education. Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Olson of Salem is attending Oregon State college.

No plans have been made for the wedding.

Evelyn Bishop Hi-Y Sweetheart . . .

Pretty, brunette Evelyn Bishop was chosen the Hi-Y Sweetheart at the annual Sweetheart dance Saturday night at the Salem high school gymnasium. Several hundred of the high school set attended the formal dance and the crowning of the sweetheart. Miss Bishop, a senior, was presented with a gold locket, a gift of the Hi-Y clubs, and her princesses, Betty Brinkley and Anita Neuenchwander, were given bouquets of roses. The identity of the sweetheart was kept a secret until intermission, the clubs having previously voted following the selection of the three girls.

Kurt Kenon's orchestra played for dancing. An eight foot heart centered the dance floor and around the walls were smaller hearts. Dozens of balloons added a colorful note to the decorations. During intermission the Hi-Y mothers served refreshments.

Patrons and patronesses for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Carleton, Mr. and Mrs. Guernee-Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. John Gardner, Miss Mary Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Moore, Dr. and Mrs. Chester W. Hamblin, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Tandy, and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Mulkey. Glenn Kleen, Hi-Y council president, was in general charge of the dance. Hosts for the affair were members of the three Hi-Y chapters, Arthur Cotten, Harrison Elliott and Abel Gregg.

Sen. Wilcox AAUW Luncheon Speaker . . .

State Senator Marie E. Wilcox will be the guest speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Salem branch, American Association of University Women on Saturday afternoon, February 19 at the Marion hotel at one o'clock. She will talk on "Legislation and Women in Politics." Members of AAUW, who are here during the legislative session, have been invited as special guests and are asked to call Mrs. Leslie Sparks or Miss Laura Hale by Thursday for reservations.

Hostesses for the luncheon meeting will be Mrs. Edward Goeckner, Miss Eleanor Stephens, Mrs. J. B. Bywater, Mrs. Mary Thomas, Miss Helen Lane and Mrs. Albert T. Anderson.

At the board meeting plans were outlined for the illustrated lecture to be given by Lowell Thomas, junior and senior, on March 8 at the Salem high school auditorium. The lecture is entitled, "Around the World with the Lowell Thomases."

Dances to Highlight Calendar . . .

The coming week is filled with formal dances, always a highlight of February. For Monday night in the Salem Shrine club's Valentine dinner dance at the Marion hotel. Dinner will be at 7 o'clock with dancing following to the music of Guy Albin's orchestra. Special entertainment and numbers by the Chanter's quartet from Al Kader temple, Portland, are slated on the after-dinner program. Over two hundred will attend the affair with many coming from out-of-town Shrine clubs. William J. Braus is chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements.

Monday Night Dance

Members of the Monday Night Dancing club will entertain with a formal dance on Thursday night, February 17 at Glenwood ballroom with Glenn Woody's orchestra playing between 9 and 12 o'clock. Officers of the club and their wives will serve as hosts including Mr. and Mrs. David H. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Zumwalt, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Larden, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Vandeneynde, ad Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Mudd.

Special guests at the dance will be Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay, Secretary of State and Mrs. Earl T. Newbry, State Treasurer and Mrs. Walter J. Pearson, President of the Senate and Mrs. William E. Walsh, Speaker of the House and Mrs. Frank VanDyke, Mayor and Mrs. Robert L. Elfstrom, Major General and Mrs. Thomas E. Rilea, Postmaster and Mrs. Albert C. Gragg. Members of the legislature and their wives, who are friends of club members, will be guests.

Military Ball

One of the largest affairs of the month will be the Military ball on Saturday night at the armory with members of the Marion chapter, Reserve Officers association as hosts. The receiving line will form at 9 o'clock with the grand march scheduled for 10 o'clock. Glenn Williams and his orchestra will play for the strictly formal affair.

Many distinguished guests from out-of-town and Salem will be present for the ball with Governor and Mrs. McKay heading the receiving line. Any active or inactive officer of the armed forces, whether a member of the Reserve Officer's association or any organized group, may attend the ball in uniform. A number of parties are being arranged to precede the ball.

Club Dances Slated

Subscription club will hold a formal dinner dance on Saturday, February 26 at the Marion hotel with Glenn Williams and his orchestra engaged to play. Mr. and Mrs. George King will head the decoration committee. Out-of-town legislators and their wives will be special guests of club members.

Two club dances slated for Friday night will be the Cama club dance at Crystal Gardens with Claude Bird's orchestra engaged to play and the Bon Heur dance at the Veteran's hall.

Lions Club Sweetheart Dinner . . .

Salem Lions club annual Sweetheart party with the wives as honor guests will be an event of Thursday night, February 17, according to L. J. Stewart, president. The informal dinner will be held at the Marion hotel at 7 o'clock with a program, skits and dancing following the dinner hour.

Roger Cochran heads the committee in charge of arrangements. Over 200 Lions club members and their guests are expected to attend the dinner. The sweetheart motif will be carried out in the decorations.