Refuses to Live On Porch; Gives Up Job of Mayor

OSWEGO, Feb. 14—(AP)—Dr. C. K. Chapman was elected Oswego mayor last month, but he had to go back to being a private citizen today. And all because of the weather.

A city survey turned up the unexpected fact that Chapman's house wasn't entirely inside the city limits. In fact, the only part of it that was inside the limits was the back porch and a splinter of the kitchen.

Chapman decided that made him ineligible for the mayorship unless he lived strictly on the porch. "And it's just too darn cold out there," he decided.

Off-Season Card Sent to North Pole

LEWISTON, Idaho, Feb. 14—(AP)—There's nothing like maintaining good public relations the year round.

That's apparently what one Lewiston youngster believes. Employees of the Lewiston postoffice today found in the incoming mail a valentine, addressed in a childish scrawl:

"Santa Claus, North Pole."

3-Year-Old Girl Killed Attempting to Save Doll

ASHTABULA, O., Feb. 14—(AP)—Little Karen Smith, 3, was killed Saturday as she ran into her flaming home in Andover, O., to rescue her doll.

Europe Nations Require Arms

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14—(AP)—Official Washington is about convinced that what western European nations need now is more arms and coordinated military training rather than more soldiers.

This trend in thinking became evident today in the light of discussions in authoritative quarters. As a result, there is no apparent disposition here to press the countries of western Europe to build up a large number of divisions this year. Rather, they will be encouraged to provide their present forces with the best equipment and training possible under the circumstances.
