Miss Aileen Zielinski A Bride

St. Vincent dePaul church was the setting for the all white wedding on Tuesday morning uniting in marriage Miss Aileen Zielinski, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Zielinski, and Dennis Manning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Manning of Gervais. The Rev. George O'Keefe performed the double ring ceremony at 9:30 a. m. and Wayne Meusey and Mrs. Monica Roda, kowski sang. The altar was decorated with potted palms and baskets of white spring flowers with a touch of orchid and yellow blooms. The alternate pews were marked with nosegays of violets and satin ribbon.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Edward Zielinski, the bride wore a heavy white satin gown made with a full skirt ending in a train, which was edged in Chantilly lace. The bodice was designed with an off-shoulder sheer yoke and the skirt was caught up in front with clusters of lilies - of - the - valley. Her train, edged with tulle cascaded from a tiara of seed pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book topped with an orchid and streamers of lilies - of - the - valley.

Miss Charlotte Zielinski was the maid of honor for her sister and bridesmaids were Mrs. Joseph Henry and Miss Clara Manning, sister of the bride and groom. Their gowns were of white brocade satin fashioned with full skirts, off shoulder necklines, short sleeves and bustles. They wore white fur head bands and carried white fur purses edged in lace to which were pinned nosegays of violets. Barbara Charlene Henny, niece of the bride, was flower girl and wore a frock of white net over taffeta.

Attend the Groom
James Manning was best man for his brother and groomsmen were Ernest Zielinski and Joseph Henny. Ushers were Cyril and Lloyd Ferschweiler and Arthur McKay.

Mrs. Zielinski chose a navy blue crepe gown with navy and pink accessories for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Manning wore a grey afternoon dress with black accessories. Their corsages were of pink rosebuds.

A wedding dinner was held at the Senator hotel for the bridal party and from 2 to 5 o'clock a reception was held at the hotel. Assisting were Mrs. Edward Zielinski, Mrs. Morrell Cray, Mrs. William Uppendahl, Miss Fred Manning, and Miss Anita Manning.

The newlyweds have gone south on their honeymoon and for going away the bride wore a navy blue dress with a white shortie coat and hat and navy accessories. Pinned to her coat was an orchid. The couple will reside at Gervais, where Mr. Manning is manager of a service station. The bride is a graduate of Sacred Heart academy and the groom is a graduate of Gervais high school.
