

Grange Hears Project Plans At Roberts

ROBERTS — Grange meeting Monday evening was well attended with visitors from Keizer, Ankeny and Fairfield granges.

New members voted were Mr. and Mrs. John Earnest, the Rev. and Mrs. Allen Wilcox, and Mrs. Helena Murhammer.

Memorial services in honor of Fanny Clymer were given by Mrs. Roy Rice, Mrs. S. L. Minard and Mrs. Melvin Trindle. Red carnations were placed on Mrs. Clymer's chair, which she held as Flora, one of the three Graces.

George Higgins, agriculture committee, reported on sealing of fruit tree branches frozen this past winter.

Roy Rice told of present bills before the state legislature.

Denver Young presented detailed plans for new addition of kitchen and restrooms on rear of hall, work to be begun as soon as weather permits.

Mrs. Paul Marsh reported on George Washington old-time benefit dance to be given at the hall Saturday, February 26, by the Home Economics club. Proceeds will go into the building fund.

Group singing, contest in honor of states and a reading by Mrs. Harvey Schueble were given during lecturer hour.

Mrs. Charles Fulton, George Higgins, Paul Marsh and Floyd Plank served on coffee committee.

Farmers Feted At Silverton

SILVERTON—A capacity crowd attended the annual Silverton Chamber of Commerce Farmers night Tuesday, at the Knights of Pythias hall.

V. V. Runyan, president, invited farmers to join the chamber.

stating there were many problems where united action of farmers and business men could accomplish more.

Harry Riches, Marion county agent, spoke on the value of agriculture in the county. He recommended an increase of berry acreage, dairying and poultry for the county. Later he showed films dealing with soil conservation and contour farming, as he told of the first study of soil erosion in 1924 and reported that a new area had been established in Silverton.

ROBERTS — Driving conditions have been hazardous for the past two weeks in the Halls Ferry district due to thawing of roads. Finer road was hard hit by buckling and chuck holes, causing residents to detour to South River road for a few days. So far no home has been flooded out along the Willamette river since most of the district is on the hillside above the River road.

Jimmey Seydel, third grade student at Halls Ferry, has transferred to Salem Heights school.

Roads Are Bad At Halls Ferry; School Busy

Five visitors were present at the school's valentine party. They were Nina Bowman, Norman Newton, Margaret Bogosian, Louise and George Matter. The fifth and sixth grades entertained with a talent show.

"Daniel Boone" is the latest movie to be shown to the entire school.

Three members of Girl Scout troop 62 completed the international friendship phase of their second class badge work Saturday.

Valley Obituaries

JAMES IFF BANKS — James Iff Banks, 88, died at the Langmack hospital here Tuesday morning, February 22, following several weeks' illness.

He was born in Ogle county, Ill., July 23, 1861. When a small boy his parents moved to Kansas where they took up ranching. On December 19, 1888, he was married to Rosa May Stark. Shortly after marriage they went to Colorado and engaged in the cattle business. For 25 years he rode the range from the Rio Grande to the Canadian border.

In 1906 the Banks family came to Oregon and settled on a ranch two miles south of Oregon City. In 1909 they moved to the old Keeney ranch south of Sweet Home. In 1914 they moved to Chico, Calif., and in 1920 they came back to Sweet Home and purchased part of their old ranch back. Mrs. Banks died in 1940.

Surviving are a son, Fay O. Banks, Clear Lake Oaks, Calif.; a daughter, Mrs. Nellie Morris, Holley, where the deceased had resided for the past few years; three grandchildren, Meri and James Morris, Holley, and Betty Waltrip, Santa Cruz, Calif.; nine great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the Christian church at Holley, Saturday, February 26 at 2 p. m., conducted by the Rev. Herry Benton of Eugene. Interment will be in Union cemetery at Crawfordville.

Bethany Sixth Grades Win

SILVERTON—Bethany school's sixth grade won the annual flag code contest among the sixth grades of the Silverton district schools sponsored by Delbert Reeves unit, American Legion auxiliary.

The prize, a 3-by-5-foot silk flag and standard, was presented to Mrs. Dorothy Wolfard and her pupils Thursday afternoon at a Washington assembly by Mrs. George Towe, president of Delbert Reeves unit, and Mrs. Harrison Fisher, Americanism chairman.

A patriotic program was a part of the afternoon's entertainment.

The Asiatic yak, small member of the ox family, is valuable to the natives for its milk, its edible flesh, its fur and its strength as a beast of burden.
