Indian School Plans Birthday Party Tonight

Chemawa Indian school will celebrate its 69th anniversary at 7:45 tonight in the school gymnasium with the annual birthday party. The program theme, "Drumbeats and Trumpet Calls," will tell Chemawa's history from its founding Feb. 25, 1880, to the present.

A narrator will tell of Chemawa's growth and groups representing the different sections of the country that Chemawa has served will appear in the order of their coming to the school. Dances and songs and bits of tribal history will depict the various cultures. The groups will appear in the following order: coastal, plains, Alaskan and the Navajos. Janice Rambeau, 16-year-old junior from Portland, has been selected by his schoolmates to be this year's birthday princess. Her attendants will be Phyllis Miller, Ernestine Lane, Leora Plummer, Agnes Tahkeal, Isabelle Patchpe and Loretta Schappy.

Noise of Dance Covers Theft in Grocery Store

A giant birthday cake has been baked by bakery students to serve 700 people, which will include Chemawa's 514 students, the employees and their families and guests of the school. Sponsoring the program is the home economics department.

Keizer Mothers Plan for Scouts

A burglar took advantage of the noise from a dance upstairs to enter Henry's market, 697 S. 12th st., Wednesday night, city detectives surmised Thursday.

Loot totaling between $10 and $15 was taken by the thief. Some $40 more in a cash register was reported untouched because the burglar was unable to break into it.

Dancing in the Moose hall above the market apparently covered the noise made by the thief in forcing a rear window which leads into Salem Custom Curing plant, adjoining the market. A saw secured from the plant was used in an attempt to break into the cash register. It was not known whether the burglar made off with small amounts of groceries and meat.
