Florida Ships 6-Car Orange Special to Safeway Stores!

One of the largest orders for Florida oranges ever consigned to a retail store group was shipped to Safeway Stores in Portland, Oregon. Officials of the Safeway Company there called on Florida growers as soon as it became apparent that freezing weather conditions in other growing areas would reduce the usual source of supply. Six carloads of Florida's sweetest, juiciest and largest oranges were immediately dispatched to the store group in response to the call and Pacific Northwest customers of the firm are now enjoying this unusual treat.
