THE ART WORLD

By MAXINE BUREN

Elstrom's gallery will open on Friday night with a reception from 7:30 to 10 o'clock. First exhibit since the galleries' redecoration will be of the work of Lili Kaye (Mrs. George) and a collection of etchings of Jacques Callot, one of the most famous of the late 16th and early 17th century etchers.

Mrs. Kaye, who came to Salem several years ago, worked as a designer in several Washington cities, in Los Angeles and Hollywood. Notable among the houses she has decorated are Dowd house in Tacoma, the Seattle Service club and the home of Claudette Colbert in Hollywood. In Salem she decorated the home of the Donald Youngs, Carl Nelsons, the Charles Woods and the Emmons Clinic. She has exhibited many paintings at the Tacoma annual fine arts exhibit and at the Seattle Museum. She studied under Mark Taber, Seattle, at Scripps college, Chinoaud in Los Angeles and University of California.

Callot was famous in his day for his stage drawings and etchings and his long perspective etchings of stage sets of the 17th century drama. Many of this exhibit are tiny masque figures in stage poses.

The exhibit comes from the Beres gallery in New York and has just been shown there. It is part of a private collection which sold intact by an impoverished Frenchman and which is considered one of the largest and most beautiful ever seen in New York. The Times and the Art Digest devoted considerable space to it recently.
