

Safe Driving Meeting Topic

SWEET HOME—George Gwinn, instructor in the grade school here, showed a picture on safety driving by the National Safety Council entitled, "Screw Driving" and "Jay Driving," at the Kiwanis club meeting Wednesday.

Bill Brown gave a report of his attendance at the down-town Kiwanis club meeting Tuesday at Portland.

Following the report of a destitute family in the community, Kiwanians contributed liberally to a fund to purchase food. Arrangements were made to supply children of the family with wearing apparel. Collection of such apparel is to be made at Wes' Shoe shop on 10th avenue.

Grand Islanders Move Back Home After Flooding

GRAND ISLAND—Sunday and Monday saw residents of Grand Island moving back to their homes after they had moved temporarily on account of the flood threat.

Iva Rockhill spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Lulu Rockhill, returning to Portland Sunday evening. Mrs. Rockhill visited Myrtle when she took Iva back. The girls attend Cascade college.

Worth Wiley and Louis Will returned this weekend from a trip to Death Valley and other points of interest. The men flew with a group of "Flying Farmers" and flew over Grand Canyon and visited Hoover dam. The weather was reported as hot.

Woodpeckers rarely destroy a healthy tree and they destroy great quantities of harmful insects.

Students Give PTA Program For Gervais

GERVAIS—The Parent-Teacher association met recently in the grade school for a no-host dinner and business session.

A program was given by the primary grades under the supervision of teachers Mrs. Marjorie Neisen and Mrs. Clara Strange. Details of the audiometer tests to be given at the public school on March 8 were explained, and a film was shown by Francis Reier-son of Marion county health department. Reports were made on new grade school construction and purchase of library books. Mrs. Bert Knowles and Mrs. Frank Coates will be hostesses for the March meeting.

Former Mayor G. J. Moisan has been moved from Salem Memorial hospital to the home of his sister, Mrs. Albert Nys of Brooks. His son, Benjamin Moisan of San Bernardino, Calif., has arrived to visit his father.

Mrs. Marie Schmidt of Eugene and Francis Nibler of Laurel, Oregon, have been visiting their sister, Mrs. Frank Elliott, who is recovering from injuries resulting from a fall. She will be taken to Salem Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Mary Doran has been visiting a daughter in Lebanon. Dale Backer, stationed at Oak Knoll naval hospital, Oakland, Calif., is spending a three weeks leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Backer.

Union Hill Woman Visits in California

UNION HILL—Mrs. C. E. Heat-er went to California last week to visit with her sister, Mrs. Henry Peters and son Donald were Salem shoppers Monday.

Guests Visit Many Homes At Jefferson

JEFFERSON—Mrs. Flora Rogers of Lewiston, Idaho, arrived this week as a guest of her sister, Mrs. Earl Cunningham, and Mr. Cunningham. Mrs. Cunningham is recovering from a severe heart attack of two weeks ago, and is still not able to do her housework.

Mrs. Lurah Alexander and son Taylor of Sweet Home spent Friday and Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Mills. Mrs. Alexander is a niece of Mr. Mills. Saturday night guests were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Cross and baby of Holly and Sunday guests were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bordune of Sweet Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bell and children returned home last Thursday from three weeks' vacation in Pomona, Calif.

A group of friends and relatives surprised Frank Higgins on his birthday Saturday night. Twenty-four guests enjoyed cards, games and refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bell entertained 22 guests Monday night honoring the second birthday of their son Danny. Games and refreshments were enjoyed.

Unionvale Women Discuss Project; Crop Spray Begins

UNIONVALE—Mr. and Mrs. Clark Noble were Sunday guests in Portland of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Stoutenburg, and Mr. and Mrs. John Solberg.

The Rev. George Millen, pastor of Unionvale Evangelical United Brethren church, is assisting with evangelistic services at Yakima, Wash., for two weeks.

Unionvale home extension unit met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Jamie Ediger. The subject for the day was "Unifying the Home Furnishings," with Murie Seales, county home demonstration agent, in charge. A no-host luncheon was served. Fourteen members were present.

Guests Thursday evening of Mrs. Leah Braat were Mrs. Fred

Withee and her sister, Mrs. Flora Baker.

Motoring to the coast Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Todd and Shirley and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Dickinson and Darlene.

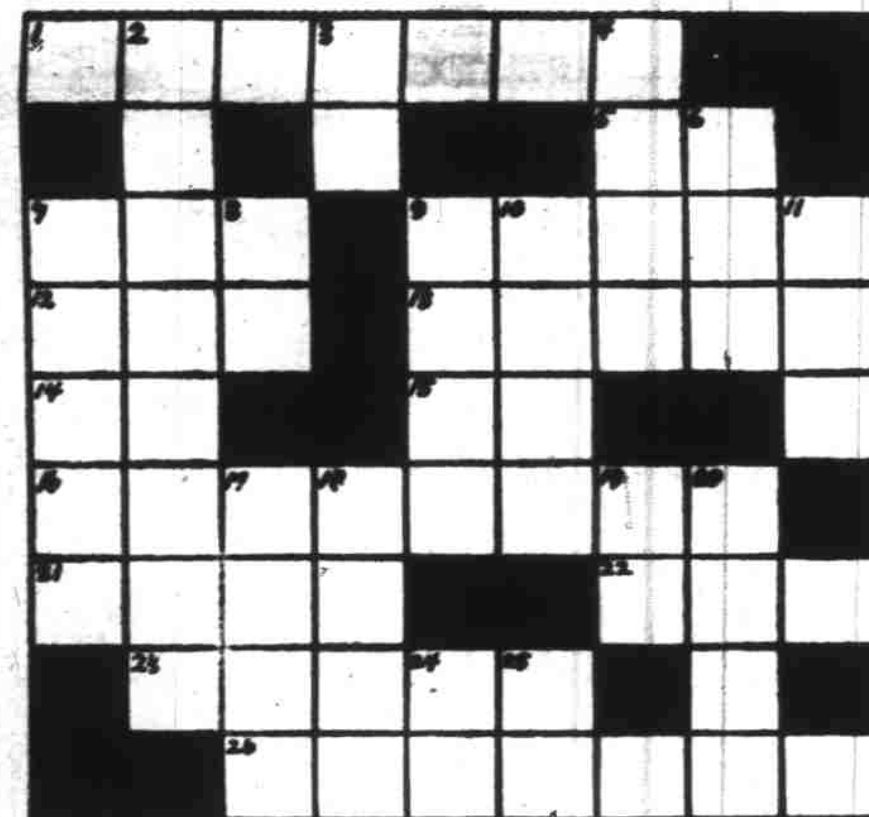

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Church of Scottsburg were guests of his parents from Thursday to Sunday.

Spring weather has promoted routine spraying of strawberries and peaches at the Alderman Farms.

PRIZE PUZZLE!

A Big Prize for the First Solution!

The first correctly worked puzzle to be brought in to the Broadway Appliance Company will give the winner a $16.70 Dominion Pop-Up Toaster. The second correctly worked puzzle to be brought in to Broadway Appliance at 453 Court Street will give the second place winner a Beautiful $6.45 G. E. Glass Coffee Maker. These entries must be in the store Wednesday, March 9th. Correct answers and names of winners will be posted in the windows at Broadway Appliance. Solution in next Sunday's Statesman.

Across

1. First name of famous appliance manufacturer. With "Electric."
5. Preposition meaning "not off."
7. Unused.
9. Fancy necktie.
12. The top card.
13. Composer of "Believe Me If All These Endearing Young Charms."
14. Street (abbreviation).
15. From; belonging to.
16. A fine deep freezer from Broadway Appliances.
21. Italian money.
22. Mister (Spanish).
23. Famous Hollywood Restaurant.
24. One of the fine electric irons sold by Broadway Appliance.

Down

2. Name of famous appliance manufacturer. With "General."
3. Man's nickname.
4. You'll think we're — when you see the low prices at Broadway Appliance.
6. A conjunction meaning "and not."
7. Pertaining to the nose.
8. You and I.
9. Love (Spanish).
10. Place to sit while your automatic Broadway Ap-
11. You make this in a whistling kettle by Trig.
17. Journey.
18. Local stein collector. Also place of amusement at 888 N. Liberty.
19. Fire Department.
20. Bull (Spanish).
24. You'll say — la la when you taste French toast made in one of our Revere frying pans.
25. Southern state south of North Carolina.

Broadway
APPLIANCE CO.
453 COURT 2-1565

Spring-inspired Fashions!

Sally's

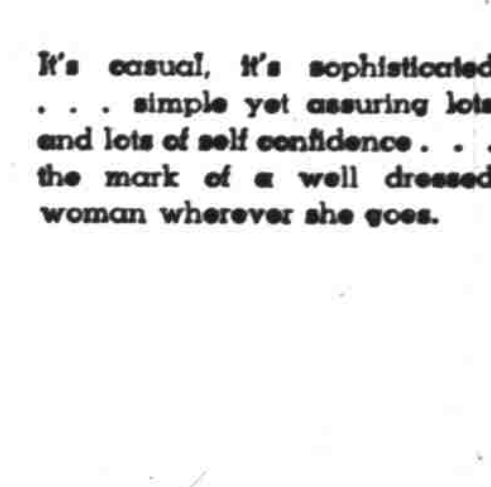

Feminine, delicately detailed fashions . . . soft, gentle fabrics . . . a wide array of warm, appealing colors so typically "This" Spring . . . All represents our new fashionwide collection. Coats, toppers, suits, hats dresses . . . you'll find them all in our sparkling assortment. In your own most flattering style, in your color and size . . . and best of all at the price you want to pay! Come see our group today!

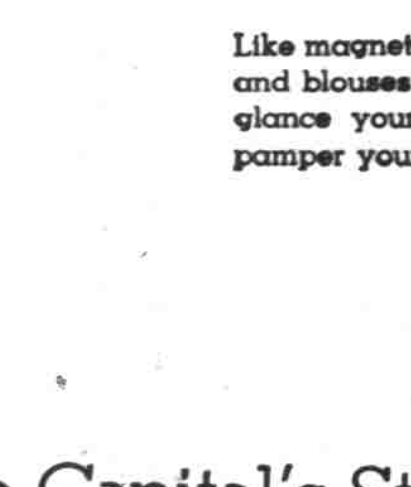

To have and to hold . . . glamorous Spring Coats to steal your heart away . . . masterpieces of breathless beauty at maximum savings.

Dresses that will steal tea table conversation and intermission murmurs . . . flattery that will take a woman to her most important occasions . . . looking fashion important!

Like magnets, these dainty hats and blouses will bring many a glance your way . . . and pamper your feminine taste!

Sally's

Liberty at Court

The Capital's Style Center

Liberty at Court