These intellectual forums have certainly been an education... I've never known as much about my neighbor's business before...

Stamps in Today's News

By Syd Krasch
The 3-cent Washington and Lee University commemorative stamp will be placed on first day sale April 12 at Lexington, Va. This stamp honors the 200th anniversary of the founding of the university.
The central design is a view of the university, to the left and right of which are portraits of Washington and Lee in oval frames. The stamps will be in sheets of 50. An initial printing of 100,000,000 has been authorized.

Hollywood On Parade

By Gene Handaker
HOLLYWOOD — Never let a light-bulb shine directly on your face, ma'am. Brings out the pores. A pink shade around it does the most for your complexion. These are hints from Movie Cameraman John Alton's forthcoming volume, "Painting with Light."
"Lighting properly used is a cosmetic," John assured me. "It has a hypnotic force, it is visual music. To look her best, a woman should surround herself with soft, diffused light and avoid harsh cross-lights. Another thing. She shouldn't place candles too low. They'll throw rings under the eyes..."

I asked Mexico's Alfonso Bedoya whether, in "Border Incident," he's playing another bad man. His reply: "I'm playing like one of Alton's floods. With this face, I can be anything but that." ... J. Carroll Nash thinks producers' profit problems are "the greatest thing that ever happened to the industry. Now the movies will really start to do something." Also that Hollywood is too much awed by British product, "as women are by anything with a Paris label. "We do just as great things here..."

Six more weeks of singing strenuously to Al Jolson's sound track in "Dear Wife" and the preceding "Dear Ruth." Says Bill "You don't work hard enough. I'll have a nervous breakdown. Nervous indigestion and insomnia sometimes give him a coated tongue. To give it a healthy hue in close-ups on the color film, Larry sucks red cherry lozenges for five minutes while the company stands by. The greatest rest he could have after the picture is finished, Larry said, would be to start right in on an independent production of his own."

No more of those nice-curtain parts for Bill Holden, like his current part in "Dear Ruth." Says Bill "You don't work hard enough. I'll have a nervous breakdown. Nervous indigestion and insomnia sometimes give him a coated tongue. To give it a healthy hue in close-ups on the color film, Larry sucks red cherry lozenges for five minutes while the company stands by. The greatest rest he could have after the picture is finished, Larry said, would be to start right in on an independent production of his own."

The lower denominations depict the Hindu civilization long before the birth of Christ while the impact of more recent history, especially the Mogul period, is shown on stamps of higher denominations. The values range from 3 pies to 10 rupees.

Some of the illustrations are the work of the artist who designed the stamps.
