House Presents Silver Service to Van Dykes

Speaker of the House Frank VanDyke (right), Medford attorney, and his wife were presented with a sterling silver service (Ascot pattern) by members of the house of representatives Thursday. The presentation was by Rep. Harvey Wells of Portland, dean of the house in point of service, on behalf of the representatives. Speaker of the House and Mrs. VanDyke thanked the house briefly. VanDyke indicated he was planning to retire from politics "at least until I have established myself economically." He expressed "sincere appreciation" for the "fine cooperation" he had received.
