Symphony Concert

Symphony Group Memorial Concert Attracts Large Crowd to Memorial

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Woman's Editor

Almost a thousand persons were in the Mt. Angel college gym on Friday night to hear the concert by the Portland Symphony orchestra in the memorial program in honor of Father Dominic Waedenschwyler, OSB, former pastor of St. Mary's church and composer of note. The Benedictine Monks of Mt. Angel sponsored the program.

The orchestra's opening number was one of the many composed by the Monk of Mt. Angel, Father Dominic, Call of the West. The composition, patterned after a symphony, contains rich melody supported by stirring, almost martial passages. The orchestra, under Werner Janssen, played the composition with sympathetic feeling.

The remainder of the program included Concerto Grosso for strings by Geminiani, Toccata and Fugue in D minor by Bach, and Brahms's beautiful Symphony No. 1 in C minor.

Comparative smallness of the hall made the presentation somewhat different than the ordinary concert as audience sat very close to orchestra and the room was fairly filled with music.

The fact that upwards of a thousand persons attended the concert in a city of but 1100 persons added special interest to the event.

The Junior Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church met in the parish house Tuesday for a one o'clock no-host luncheon. Honored with a birthday cake were Mrs. Eugene Foster and Miss Jean Quickenden. Guests were Mrs. C. A. Dorfier of Salem and Mrs. Alvin Hartley of Silverton. Mrs. Louise E. Muller was introduced as a new member.

The organization is strictly non-professional and non-profit and no admission will be charged for the concerts and the public is invited.

Featured on the program will be Anna Gibbens, young Salem pianist who will play the First Movement of Rubenstein concerto in D minor for piano and orchestra.

Other works to be played by the orchestra and conducted by Frank Fisher are Overture to the Secret Marriage by Cimarosa; the Unfinished Symphony by Schubert and the Russian Sailor's Dance from the Red Poppy by Gliere.

Selected for the younger members of the audience will be the Dance of the Flutes from Nutcracker Suite by Tchaikovsky.
