 The meeting will concern proposed consolidation of Monmouth, Independence and seven nearby school districts, which will be voted on March 28.

Insurance Firm at Work in New Building

Huggins Insurance Agency in New Building on Church Street

The Huggins Insurance agency is settled into its new building at 373 N. Church st. today, following last week's move from quarters which it had occupied since the local portion of the firm was established in 1940.

The reinforced concrete structure, designed by Lyle Bartholomew and built by Barham Brothers, is modernistic, featuring generous natural and artificial lighting. Private conference rooms are provided, and the building is acoustically treated.

Off-street parking is available on the site, attained either from Church street or from the alley to the rear.

The agency was established in 1919 in Coos Bay by George C. Huggins, who was joined by Charles H. Huggins in 1924. They purchased the local W. H. Burghardt agency in 1940 and occupied the former Capital National bank building. Associated agencies are also operated in Myrtle Point and Gold Beach.

Newest addition here is a life insurance department in charge of Robert P. Aiken.

SURPRISE PARTY HELD

CLOVERDALE—A surprise birthday party was given last Sunday afternoon by Mrs. Don Vinlon, honoring her mother, Mrs. Bob Hunsaker at her home here. Many friends and neighbors dropped in for an informal pot-luck lunch, and afternoon of fun.

President of Huggins Insurance agency is George C. Huggins, Coos Bay, who founded the firm in 1919. He is planning a new building for the coast city this fall. Huggins was a state representative from Coos county in 1941-42.

Charles H. Huggins (above) is secretary-treasurer of Huggins Insurance agency and manages the Salem office, which has just moved to its new building on North Church street. Huggins is commander of Capital post 9, American Legion, and president of the Marion county Red Cross chapter.

Shrine Chanters to Feature Portland Lyric Soprano

Helen Louise Tims, 22-year-old lyric soprano of Portland, will be the featured vocalist with the Al Kadar Shrine Chanters at a benefit performance in the Salem high school auditorium, Friday at 8 p.m. Proceeds of the program will go to the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children in Portland.

Mina Tims, a Portland employe of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, is a graduate of the University of Oregon school of music where she shared leads in two student musicals. A protégé of Sigurd Nilssen, she has had more than 10 years of voice training. She entertained at the George White Servicemen's center in Portland during the war.

Her part in the Friday night program will include solo numbers, Thine Alone and Into the Night, as well as duet pieces, I'll See You Again and When You're Away, to be sung with Walt McKinney of radio station KOIN. In addition she will accompany the Chanters in The Italian Street Song and My Hero.
