

X-Ray Unit at Work in County

The mobile chest X-ray survey will continue this week in Marion county towns outside Salem. The survey is scheduled to continue to April 5.

Beginning Monday the unit will be in Gervais high school 9 a. m. to noon, and at St. Paul, Manegre Farm Implement company, 2 to 5 p. m.; Tuesday, Mt. Angel Legion hall, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.; Wednesday, Silverton, Eugene Field school, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.; Thursday, Silverton, Eugene Field school, 9 a. m. to noon, and Friday, Stayton Woman's club, 10 a. m. to 6 p. m.

One-Way Grid System Backed By Committee

Support for the Baldock plan of a truck by-pass for Salem and recommendation for a trial of one-way traffic grid were voiced by Salem Traffic Improvement committee Saturday in a letter to the mayor and city council.

The group's executive committee, in a letter signed by T. Harold Tomlinson, vice chairman, said it urged consideration of the one-way traffic system "bearing in mind that a one-way grid plan could be tried at nominal cost and if not found satisfactory, amended or repealed."

Officers said more than 900 signatures have been obtained on petitions to back these changes.

Out-of-Season Angler Fined

In the first case of its kind this year Martin H. Baughman, Salem, was fined $50 and costs in Marion county district court Saturday on a charge of angling for trout in closed season.

State police said they arrested Baughman Saturday morning after he allegedly caught four trout in Pudding river.

In other district court action Saturday, F. B. Greenfield, 2565 S. Summer st., was fined $50 on a charge of dumping rubbish in a county ditch. Paul Crookshanks, a transient, pleaded guilty to a charge of larceny of an electric shaver, and was given a 30-day suspended jail sentence by District Judge Joseph Felton.

Drive Starts to Enlist Vets in Reserve Units

Salem army and air force recruiting office is participating in a nation-wide campaign to enroll veterans in the enlisted reserve corps. It was announced Saturday by Lt. Col. Raymond M. Hay, commander.

The drive is being directed primarily at men whose enlistments in the reserve corps have recently expired or will terminate soon and all eligible veterans of World War II.

"For the first time in our history," said Colonel Hay, reservists are eligible for retirement benefits. The plan provides a pension beginning at 60 after 20 years' total satisfactory service.

"Worked under a point system, veterans with three to five years' war service already have accumulated a sizable credit toward a retirement."

Despite the fact that he is a civilian, a reservist retains the grade he held on discharge from the army and has opportunity for advancement, Col. Hay said. Service schools and extension courses are available to him.
