

Seen and Heard...

By JERYME ENGLISH

FIRST SHOWING... in Salem of Lilla Kaye's modish paintings at the Elstrom Galleries on Friday night... Thomas Colt, jr., director of the Portland Art Museum down for the occasion complimenting Mrs. Kaye's paintings as well as the handsome frames made by her husband... also Mrs. Norman Huffman, consultant of the galleries, whom he knew in the south... Mrs. Kaye mingling with the guests and distinctive in her avocado green taffeta two piece full skirted dress and matching changeable taffeta hat with large bow in back... Mrs. Huffman's taupe gown fashioned with tucked skirt, m-t becoming...

From Out-of-Town... Came Mrs. Charles Hyde of Tacoma, who will show her paintings at the galleries here later in the spring... from Portland Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bince greeting Salem friends... Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Hayalip... she a symphony in grey and her velvet hat enhanced with kelly green ribbon... the Joseph McLaughlins... the latter wearing a becoming short hair-do and most attractive was her foam green coat... Mr. Kaye's sister, Mrs. Thomas Counihan, also of Portland... Miss Hazel Robb... and Yette Kimball of New York, who is in Portland now installing the north-west Indian collection at the Portland Art Museum... the above guests all entertained at dinner at the Donald Young home preceding the showing and reception... Mrs. Huffman a co-hostess... Mrs. Young chic in a black and white checked suit, the black jacket edged with a wide cuff of the check material and for color a red straw hat with upturn brim... The Reception Table... wide violet ribbon extending down the center and edged in lace... at one end a large bow of the ribbon and a gold and green fan with an arrangement of flowers in the violet shades... the pourers wearing corsages of violets... Mrs. Keith Powell, Miss Edith Schryver the first hour... and later Mrs. Charles Wood... and Miss Mabel Robertson...

Also Spotted... Mrs. Fred Moxley and her daughter, Edith (Mrs. John Arthur Miller) out for a visit from Columbus, Ohio... both chic in grey suits... Mrs. Moxley's hat highlighted with grey taffeta bow... grey certainly the popular color this spring... Mrs.

Gene Vandeneysde's good-looking suit in two shades of grey... Norborne Berkeley, former Salem high school teacher, up from Eugene... Max Buhmann, registrar at the Portland Art Museum, also here for the showing... Mrs. Karl Becke and Mrs. H. G. Maizon, new managers of the galleries, pinning violets to their outfits... Mrs. Becke in red and Mrs. Maizon in delft blue...

HONOR GUESTS... were Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Thomas and son, Lowell, jr., at the reception following the lecture Tuesday night at the Fairmount Hill home of Mayor and Mrs. Robert L. Elstrom... nearly a hundred guests calling to greet the Thomases... Miss Eleanor Stephens introducing to the line... first the hosts... then Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, sr... she a most attractive woman wearing a handsome black dress, a mink coat when leaving... Lowell, jr., blonde and good-looking... enjoying the trip immensely and the contacts with students at both high school and Willamette... The French Table... mint green cloth and at one end an arrangement of narcissus and carnations with yellow tapers down the center... at the other end the punch bowl, where Mrs. Custer Ross presided... her usual smart self in a distinctive black gown with pearl combs in her hair... Judge and Mrs. George Roseman also in line and he receiving congratulations on his birthday... Admiral and Mrs. Thomas Gatch down from Portland... although Lowell Thomas, sr., had written about Admiral Gatch in his book, this was their first meeting... Mrs. Gatch wearing an acorn brown hat and matching feather with her delft blue suit... Bouquets to Mrs. Floyd Utter, chairman of the lecture for the Salem branch, AAUW... a complete sellout at the auditorium, and over seven hundred dollars to swell the AAUW fellowship fund...

POST RECEPTION NOTES... Still much talk going around about the successful city-wide reception held on Monday for Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay... the lobby of the Marion hotel jammed packed all evening... but once inside the Mirror and Marine Rooms, all was fine... as those assisting and committee members saw to it that no one lingered too long to talk to Delta Gamma mothers will meet at the chapter house Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Court street chapter house. Hostesses at the tea hour will be Mrs. Walter Gardner and Mrs. Cass Nichols.

Dr. Hellen To Speak

Dr. Margit Hellen, a Finnish dentist, who is now in Portland and hopes to remain in the states, will be the guest speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Salem branch, American Association of University Women on Saturday afternoon, March 19 in the Mirror room at the Marion hotel. She will tell of the activities of university women in Finland and will also include in her talk information with respect to international education of university women.

Theme of the meeting is fellowship and Mrs. John O. Burcham, state president and a member of the Salem branch, will discuss the fellowship program of AAUW. Mrs. E. T. Brown is chairman of the luncheon and hostesses will be Mesdames Frederick L. Loupold, John Jelderks, Donald Emerson and Francis E. Gaskins. Members are asked to make reservations on Thursday or Friday morning with Mrs. Leslie J. Sparks or Mrs. B. B. Boylan.

Lions Auxiliary At Givens' Home

Lions auxiliary will meet on Thursday for a 1:15 dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. Everet Givens, 1695 South Cottage street. The committee includes Mrs. Stanley Smith, Mrs. Harry Miller, Mrs. Victor Palmason, Mrs. Ralph Eyre, Mrs. Jerry Scott and Mrs. Virgil Golden. Mrs. John Ramage is in charge of the program.

The auxiliary board met on Monday, at lunch and made plans for a food booth at the dog show on April 2 and 3. Mrs. Denver Young and Mrs. Givens will be chairmen. Mrs. Jacob Fuhrer, local president, and Mrs. Stanley Smith will go Wednesday night to McMinnville to help organize a new auxiliary.

WSCS Meeting, Program

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian service of the First Methodist church will be held on Wednesday. At 10:45 a.m. the business session will begin and lunch will be served at noon under the direction of Mrs. Herbert Ostlund and circle 1. The program will begin at 1:30. Miss Amy Martin will lead devotions, Mrs. W. E. Kirk will lead the study lesson on "Light in Puerto Rico." Mrs. J. Edgar Purdy will give some highlights of the western jurisdiction meeting of the WSCS, Miss Doris McCain will play the violin and Ray Fedje will speak.

Competitive Festival Set

The junior competitive festival for young people up to 18 of the Oregon Federation of Music clubs sponsored by the National Federation will be held on Friday and Saturday, May 20 and 21, at the Portland Women's club building, according to Mrs. Mary L. Craig, chairman. Extra blanks and information may be secured by writing Mrs. Craig, 7223 S. E. Tolman street.

Salem Memorial hospital auxiliary will meet Monday afternoon at the hospital at 1:30 o'clock. Plans will be completed for the benefit tea to be given by the auxiliary in April. For the program Mrs. Clarke Lethy will sing.

Don't Look Now...

but... have you noticed how many fathers, come the first nice windy March days, take special interest in their son's kite flying activities? It's very much like Christmas and electric trains—the poor little boys just can't seem to handle their playthings all by themselves, so Daddy sacrifices his furnace cleaning-out-and-plumbing-repair hours to junior.

Something in common... The other day when we saw a great big, aluminum covered van, decorated in large letters saying "Margaret Webster Shakespearean Company, Hamlet and Macbeth" buzzing up Court Street we got a jolt. Somehow we couldn't quite reconcile ourselves to seeing Hamlet and Macbeth riding around in a lorry through the streets of Salem with Margaret Webster, and we'll bet Bill would have thought the same about it.

Joint District Meeting

A joint district meeting of Chadwick and Salem chapters, Order of Eastern Star will be held Tuesday night at the Masonic Temple at 8 o'clock. The worthy grand matron, Mrs. William Thum of Cottage Grove, will be here to inspect the work of the two chapters. Also a guest will be Rex Hartley, Jefferson, worthy grand patron.

Graduation...

It used to be that you could get up a grand crowd to watch a dinky one horse scraper excavate a basement and then it took a ten-ton bulldozer to whip up an audience. But I'll bet if someone would go back to the horse and scraper for excavating the basement of a three-story skyscraper half the town would turn out to see. A lot of folk had fun watching the crated freezing unit go into the currently refurbished meat market on Commercial street Friday.

March 15th...

What was it we were supposed to do before March 15? Ho hum, couldn't have been too important or we wouldn't have forgotten... Maxine Buren
