

Joyce Brown pictured presenting her father, Clarence L. Brown, with an invitation to the annual Camp Fire Girls father-daughter banquet on March 17 at the chamber of commerce in celebration of Birthday Week. Mr. Brown is finance chairman of the Salem district council, Camp Fire Girls. (Statesman photo by Don Dill).

Camp Fire Birthday Week

The opening of Camp Fire Girls annual Birthday Week March 13 to 19 will be marked by all Camp Fire Girls attending churches and synagogues of their choice. Mrs. George Bagnall is executive director of the Willamette Area council and Mrs. Iri McSherry is chairman of the Salem council.

Other special programs will be held by Camp Fire Girls during the week. Monday stresses "Democracy at School," and each girl will make one new friend outside of Camp Fire. Pen Pals all over the world will be written to on Tuesday, "Democracy Letter Day." Wednesday is "Sharing Democracy" and townspeople will be aware of this day through window exhibits, bulletin board displays in schools, churches, civic buildings, and special programs.

The annual Dad-Daughter banquet to be held Thursday, at 6:15 in the chamber of commerce and a program has been planned including the presentation of campships to the Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds in Marion and Polk county areas.

Friday is the night for family fun and "Sharing Democracy with Mother." Families will have the benefit of daughters homemaking and citizenship training when they eat dinner, planned and prepared by their Camp Fire or Blue Bird girls.

In the Camp Fire program one important objective is to help girls accept people whose cultural and religious backgrounds are different from their own.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Lloyd entertained the Krazy Eight club at their home for pinchele and a late supper. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Al Hakanson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Don Bolter, Jack Bolter, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Linquist and Miss Carolyn Johnson. Members attending were Mr. and Mrs. George Alder, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Knight, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Carper, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Walker, Donald Walker and the hosts.

Mrs. Walter Spaulding is spending the weekend in Portland with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Bennisson.

NORTHWEST'S MOST COMPLETE FUR SERVICE COMES TO MILLER'S!

- ...CLEANING
- ...RESTYLING
- ...STORAGE
- ...MATCHING
- ...REPAIRING
- ...RE-DYEING

All Under One Roof!

Miller's announce the Northwest's most complete fur service under one roof! The demand for high fashions in little furs coupled with the desire of every woman who wishes to have her precious furs re-fashioned and re-styled, prompted Miller's in deciding on this complete fur servicing department.

5000 GARMENT CAPACITY—FRIGID COLD FUR STORAGE VAULT ON THE PREMISES

A fully modern fur storage vault to protect your finest furs, fur trimmed cloth garments and such wools as blankets, piece goods etc. See Miller's for full protection including fire, theft and moth losses.

Discarding Old, Fragile or Weak Parts of an Old Fur Coat

Here, your old fur garment is dissected for its best fur. All worn, or poor fur is carefully cut away and nothing but the best used in remodeling. One average discarded fur coat will make a beautiful "little fur" garment, stole, cape or jacket.

Erle Kirkevold
... Manager-Buyer

Having had years of experience in the fur industry in the Northwest, Mr. Kirkevold comes well recommended to Miller's as a capable furrier and one who knows the fur markets well. His many fur outlets in Oregon and Washington lends ample buying power and prestige in the world of fur fashions.

"Mike" Wasserman
... Designer-Fur Fashion Expert

As one of the country's well known fur fashions designer, Mr. Wasserman, whose experience in cutting, designing and fashioning furs for the trade, was spent mostly in New York City. His specialty, that of re-fashioning, remodeling, matching etc. will be a decided asset to Miller's complete fur service. His ability in restyling an old fur coat . . . plus his uncanny knowledge of furs, assures only the finest even in furs several seasons old. The fashion trend for "little furs" is expected to bring out many "past season" fur coats for restyling.

YOU MAY HAVE A GOLD MINE IN YOUR CLOSET

FROM YOUR OLD FUR COAT TO A PRECIOUS "LITTLE FUR" FASHION

. . . and so expertly done you'll think it a masterpiece of modern fashion! This department will show you how your old fur may be completely re-habilitated. Whether its a full length, full back, belted model or a jacket or cape . . . every detail is handled at Miller's. Take advantage of this new service now . . . before the storage season arrives.

Free Estimates Gladly Given on all Remodeling, Restyling and Storage.

Actual Sketches of Our Re-styling

Designing, Cutting to Pattern

After selecting the best fur, a pattern is designed and cut just for you. You may see your old fur blossom into a modern new style that would be quite costly on today's market if it were to be purchased "ready-made."

FINISHING, INSPECTING, FINAL PROCESS

Elizabeth Maxwell, born of Eskimo parents in the far north, comes to Miller's well qualified in the art of finishing fur garments. Experts claim it is a secret handed-down from mother to daughter . . . we at Miller's, however, do believe in her expert ability in handling furs and we cordially invite you to see her finished furs in the fur department on the second floor.

Miller's

Youthmore
ORIGINAL

English as It Looks!

That look of Bond Street tailoring!—Youthmore does it so magnificently with this inspiring plaid in fine, imported worsted! Classic, 3-button, English sack coat styling! It all adds up to elegance and distinction—in this smart classic that dares to be different with deep panel pockets that make you look taller, slimmer, smarter!

Miller's