

Head Woman....

Today we honor the woman executive, who holds responsible positions in the business and professional world. Pictured on our page are just a few of the dozens of the top women executives in our capital city, representing the various fields of work open to women. Though most of them rarely take dictation now, they began some years ago as office secretaries, working to the top of the ladder and now have many men and women working under them.

To Fete a Bride-Elect . . .

Miss Mary Reimann, June bride-elect of Oscar Christensen, jr., will be the honor guest at a pre-nuptial party Wednesday night when her Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority sister, Miss Mary Lou McKay, entertains at the Jerris avenue home of her parents, Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay.

Guests have been bidden to a 7 o'clock supper with a bridal shower following. Honoring Miss Reimann will be her mother, Mrs. Leo Reimann, Mrs. O. C. Christensen, mother of the benedict-elect, his sisters, Miss Ardis and Miss Marne Christensen, Miss Shirley Reimann, sister of the honor guest, and the following Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority sisters, Mrs. Roger M. Schnell, Mrs. Robert Elgin, Miss Marianne Bonesteel, Miss Jean Pickens, Miss Nancy Snyder, Miss Betty Jean Manoles, Miss Anita Miller and Miss Joan Schuler of Woodburn, and Mrs. Douglas McKay and the hostess.

Miss Reimann and her fiance are juniors at Oregon State college and his fraternity is Beta Theta Pi.

Housekeeper super-deluxe is Miss Lorena Jack, director of residence halls at Willamette university the past twelve years. She manages Baxter hall, including the four fraternity wings, Lausanne hall, Frederickson hall and Laurel hall, housing a total of 410 students. She has charge of all the buying, housekeeping and prepares the menus. She has 60 full time and 40 student employes under her management. Here she is shown checking the daily menu before taking it to the kitchens. (Kennell-Ellis).

Education claims the time of Miss Joy Hills, principal of Leslie Junior high school. Aside from her strenuous duties as an educator, she is much in demand for speaking engagements. She came to the Salem school system in 1928 and has been principal of Leslie for five years. (Kennell-Ellis).

Though she looks like a fashion model, Mrs. F. Ethel Lou has a large and responsible job cut at the Paulus Brothers Packing Co. in southeast Salem. As traffic manager of the company, she is directly responsible for all supplies and produce coming in and going from the cannery. She has been with the organization for 25 years. She has two daughters, Mrs. Ralph Bent, Salem, and Mrs. Carl E. McLaughlin, Portland and five grandchildren. (Kennell-Ellis).

Busy registering all Marion county men between the ages of 18 and 26 is Mrs. John S. Beakey, who is chief clerk of selectiveservice, Marion county board. To date there are 6,000 registrants in the county, but at the present no men are being called to duty. Besides having her fingertips on all information in the files she is kept busy answering the many inquiries on the phone as well as personal office calls. She is the mother of two daughters and a son. (Kennell-Ellis).

Right hand woman to Governor Douglas McKay is Miss Alene Phillips, the governor's private secretary. Her job is to receive all visitors to the executive office, she takes care of the governor's appointments, does secretarial work and handles his correspondence. She's pictured here caring for one of three lots of mail received daily. Miss Phillips has been with the state for 20 years in the secretary of state and governor's offices. (Kennell-Ellis).

Nuptials on Saturday . . .

Of interest to Salem friends of the couple is the wedding ceremony which took place in Portland Saturday afternoon uniting in marriage Miss Mary Kathryn Phelps, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard T. Phelps of Portland, and Robert Norman Phillips, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Phillips of Salem. The nuptials were performed at St. Michael and All Angels church at 4 o'clock with the Rev. George R. Turney officiating. Mrs. E. Stone was the organist.

For her wedding the brunette bride chose a pearl grey dressmaker suit with navy and white accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid. Mr. Phelps gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Artie Phillips of Salem, sister of the groom, was the bride's only attendant. She wore a navy blue bolero suit with navy and pink accessories and carried a nosegay of pastel flowers. Paul C. Rodgers was best man for Mr. Phillips and seating the guests were Robert G. Coates and Dan H. Ross.

Mrs. Phelps wore a navy blue suit with corsage of white roses for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Phillips selected a beige ensemble with orchid corsage for her son's marriage.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception at the Phelps home in Portland. Mrs. C. A. Cox and Mrs. E. J. Schmitz presided at the coffee urns and Miss Vera Jack cut the cake. Assisting were the Misses Lorraine Mileir, Joan Cloudy, Marjorie Stockman, Gwen Harper, Margaret Austin and Sara Warner.

Mr. Phillips and his bride have gone north to Victoria, B. C., on their wedding trip and will be at home in Salem after April 1.

To Model Easter Bonnets . . .

A preview of Easter hats will be shown at the Salem Junior Woman's club annual Easter bonnet bridge benefit on Monday night, April 11 at the Salem Woman's clubhouse at 8 o'clock. Plans were completed for the event this week with Mrs. Arthur Roethlin named as chairman. Her committee includes Mrs. Donald Cannon, Mrs. Jack Strickfaden, Mrs. Raymond Randall, Mrs. George Sirnio, Mrs. Robert Bowling and Mrs. Floyd Colburn.

Miller's will show the hats to be modeled by the following club members: Mrs. C. M. Collins, Mrs. Thomas Gabriel, Mrs. William Stewart, Mrs. Terry Randall, Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mrs. Carlton Greider, and Mrs. Ross Coppock.

Having the distinction of being the only chief deputy sheriff in the state is Miss Alma Johnson, who is chief deputy of the Marion county sheriff's office, who takes full charge when Sheriff Denver Young is called out of the office, which is often. She has been in the sheriff's office for nearly six years and finds her work most interesting. (Kennell-Ellis).

Social Slate Filled With Varied Events...

By Jeryme English
Society Editor

Teas, luncheons and dances will mark the social calendar during the ensuing week. First large event will be the open house and tea this afternoon for which members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity on the Willamette university campus will be hosts. The affair climaxes the weekend festivities for the fraternity including the formal installation of the chapter on the campus and initiation. A dance and banquet were held Saturday night at the chamber of commerce.

SAE Tea This Afternoon

All friends of the fraternity, townspeople, faculty, trustees, students, alumnae and mothers club of panhellenic groups are invited to call between 3 and 5 o'clock. In the receiving line will be Charles Bowe, president of the active chapter, Mrs. Elizabeth Higbee, housemother, Robert G. Brady, president of the Salem alumnae of SAE, and the national officers here for the ceremonies including G. A. Ginter, national president; Emmett B. Moore, national vice-president; Lauren Foreman, executive secretary; Al Scoth, chapter supervisor; and Glenn T. Nygreen, province president.

Pouring during the afternoon will be Mrs. Albert T. Anderson, Mrs. Robert Hynes, Mrs. Robert G. Brady and Mrs. George Neuner, all wives of alumnae.

Mrs. McKay at Home

Mrs. Douglas McKay held her weekly at home on Tuesday afternoon at her Jerris avenue residence for all interested townspeople and out-of-town guests in the city for the day.

An Au Revoir Tea

For Thursday afternoon is the informal tea for which Mrs. Robert E. Shinn and her daughter, Mrs. Harry V. Carson, jr., will be hostesses at the Shinn home on North Summer street. The au revoir tea is being arranged in compliment to Miss Sally McLellan, daughter of the Daniel J. McLellans, who is now awaiting her orders to leave for Europe, where she will return as an army hostess with the special branch of the U. S. army. Miss McLellan returned to the states in October from Germany after two years of duty. She expects her orders by the first of April.

A group of Miss McLellan's Kappa Alpha Theta sorority sisters, and intimate friends have been invited to call between 4 and 6 o'clock.

Waverly Club Dinner Dance

Event of the coming weekend for members of the young married contingent will be Waverly club's formal dinner dance in the Mirror room of the Marion hotel Saturday night, March 26. Dinner will be served at 9 o'clock with dancing following to the music of Glenn Williams and his orchestra.

Hosts and hostesses will be Dr. and Mrs. Maynard Shiffer, Dr. and Mrs. Horace McGee and Mrs. Charles Carey and Mrs. Mark Gehlar. The decorating committee includes Mrs. Clifford Hill, Mrs. Charles Carey and Mrs. Mark Gehlar. A number of out-of-town guests are expected to attend and several parties are being arranged to precede the affair.
