

Lincoln Center Buys Land for New Building

LINCOLN — All seats were filled at Lincoln schoolhouse when Lincoln Community Center association held a joint meeting with Lincoln Community club. C. L. Scoggins showed moving pictures.

James P. Smart led group singing with Mrs. Edward Schlegel as accompanist, and Mrs. Schlegel gave piano selections. Mrs. T. L. Hicks, president, presided at the business meeting of LCC and appointed as committee on arrangements for the next meeting Mrs. Eva Purvine and Mrs. Walter Brog. Mrs. Robert Yungen was program chairman with Mrs. Harold Burns. Robert Yungen, president of LCCA, conducted a business session.

The LCCA purchased seven acres from Mrs. J. D. Walling at Lincoln corner, on which a building is to be erected for the districts of Lincoln, Zena, Brush College and Spring Valley. Appointed as a building committee are Robert Shepard, James P. Smart, Mrs. Harold D. Burns, Kenneth Hunt, Avalt and Miller and Mrs. Walter Brog.

Missionary Unit Entertained at Woodburn Home

GERVAIS—Mrs. William Sporsky of Woodburn entertained the Clara Jones Missionary society Wednesday. Fifteen members attended, and Mrs. Donald Mars Nehalem, was a guest. Mrs. J. B. Brown led the devotionals, and Mrs. Clara Jones gave the year book of prayer. Members discussed mission work in Japan, Alaska and Puerto Rico. The society accepted an invitation to a dessert luncheon with the Woodburn Missionary society. Mrs. George T. Wadsworth assisted the hostess at the refreshment hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Stevens attended the funeral of Mr. Stevens' half-sister, Mrs. Ollie Parker, Portland, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cutsforth entertained Mr. and Mrs. Marion Henning for the weekend at their beach home at Lincoln Beach. They were joined Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harper, Nancy Hummel, Klamath Falls, and Robert W. Harper.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kunze left recently for their home in Kearney Neb., after visiting the former's sisters, Mrs. Perry Seely.

DRESSES BEING MADE

PRATUM—A cotton dress work shop is being held at the home of Mrs. Cornelius Bateson with seven dresses being made. The leaders have been Mrs. Bateson and Mrs. J. G. Louderbank. Sewing was done March 10 and 17 and the final day will be March 23. Making dresses are Mrs. Robert Anderson, Mrs. Robert Hansen, Mrs. Ralph Wilson, Mrs. Nile Hillborn, Mrs. Ed Powers, Mrs. Albert Mantle and Mrs. A. Bowen.

A piece of radium will lose half its radiating power in 1,600 years.
