

City News Briefs

CEMETERY GROUP FILES
Articles of association for St. Paul Cemetery association, to manage and control cemetery grounds of St. Paul Catholic church, were filed Thursday with Marion county clerk. The 15 trustees of the association are the Rev. James L. Maxwell, Steve J. Merrett, F. R. Coleman, Frederick B. Hiller, Henry Zorn, Peter P. Kirk, Frank Bernards, Charles Pelland, F. R. Manegre, Edward F. Davidson, P. A. Bernard, Claude Smith, S. J. Smith, J. B. Wolf and J. G. McKillip.

Neighbors of Woodcraft Runmage Sale, Argo Hotel, March 25 & 26, 9:30-4.

Lee Bros. Furniture refinishing Co. ph. no. has been changed to 2-7001.

LIONS HEAR LINDSTROM
Hollywood Lions club had as guest speaker Wednesday noon Carl Lindstrom, radio instructor at Salem high school, who demonstrated amateur sending and receiving sets, assisted by Charles Austin, Warren Perkins and George Nokes.

A mobile transmitter truck was part of equipment used for the lecture at the Lion's den.

Calvary Baptist Church 1230 S. Liberty announces Dr. Sanford Fleming, pres. of Northern Baptist Convention, as guest speaker Sunday at 11.

CORPORATION FILES
Articles of incorporation for Willamette Association of Credit Men, Inc., were filed Thursday with Marion county clerk by F. W. Smith, F. H. Emmons and L. M. Blum. Among its purposes are the promotion of improved cooperation and methods in gathering and use of credit information.

Launderette—1255 Ferry St.

SUPERVISORS TO MEET
Salem Industrial Supervisors club will meet April 11 at the YMCA to hear a talk on high cost of living by the Rev. Dudley Strain. The club's executive committee this week also was planning for an employer-employee dinner in May and a club picnic in June.

Choice of any bookcase $7.95. Values up to $13.95. Woodrows, 450 Center.

STOP-LITE SERVICE FILES
Certificate of assumed business name for Stop-Lite Richfield service, at 12th street junction on highway 99E, was filed Thursday with Marion county clerk by A. W. Amundson, Salem route 4, box 292.

Rummage Sale, Fri. & Sat., Mar. 25 & 26, over Greenbaum's, Englewood United Brethren Church.

PHONE LINE APPROVED
Permit to Waldo Hills Telephone company to install a pole line along the east side of county road 746 between Geer and Macleay roads was granted Thursday by Marion county court.

Friends—Remember the Maine; Pearl Harbor; Nov. 2, '48; Legislature. Watch "Old Man River" roll. Goal half million.

LOG HAULING OKKED
Permits to haul logs over designated roads in Marion county were granted Thursday by the county court to Breitenstein Bros. Lumber company, Sublimity route 1, and to George Wirth, 840 Plymouth dr., Salem.

Federally Insured Savings—Current dividend 2 1/2%. See First Federal Savings First, 142 S. Liberty. Phone 3-4944.

FILES BAKERY NAME
Amy McCutcheon filed a certificate of assumed business name with Marion county clerk Thursday for Salem Home bakery, 1380 N. Church st., dealing in bakery, grocery and light lunches.

Expert elec. wiring, and every appliance. Broadway Appliance, 453 Court St. Tel: 2-1565. Repairs of all kinds. Put your reliance in Broadway Appliance. Call 2-1565.

INJURED IN FALL
Clarence Cristman, 8, 162 Fairhaven st., suffered several minor cuts Thursday when he fell from his bicycle onto broken glass. He was given treatment by Salem first aidmen.

The Eola Community Club Benefit Cafeteria Supper & Bazaar, Fri., March 25, 6:30 p. m., Eola School.

TAKE BABIES HOME
Mothers taking babies home from Salem General hospital Thursday were Mrs. Gordon Steward, 437 Manbrin dr., with a daughter, and Mrs. Duane Hewitt, 1067 Ruge st., West Salem, with a son.

Insured savings earn more than two per cent at Salem Federal Savings Association, 560 State st.

LEAVE WITH BABIES
Leaving Salem Memorial hospital to take home newborn babies Thursday were Mrs. Otto Davenport, Stayton route 1, with a son, and Mrs. Calvin Treahan, Lyons, with a daughter.

Attend Barbershop Jamboree, Leslie High School, Apr. 2.

LICENSED TO WED
Marriage licenses have been issued in Vancouver to Donald W. Garrison and Frances D. Clement, both of Salem, and John H. Cordell and Ethel O. Watson, both of Dallas.

Chicken Loaf Luncheon at Eola's, Sat. 11:00 to 2:30. First Congregational Project Group.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our deep feeling of gratitude to the kind friends who helped us in so many ways at the time of the death of our dear wife and mother, Fay Littleton.
EARL LITTLETON and FAMILY.

ANNOUNCE OPENINGS
Examinations for probational appointments as construction inspector, automotive transportation specialist, automotive transportation administrator, printing and publication officer and fire prevention engineers have been announced by the civil service commission.

Karakul Karpel. It's new, it's reversible, it's 100% virgin wool and woven through and through, only $4.95 sq. yd. Ph. 3-7648 or 3-3364.

ESCAPEES CAPTURED
Three freight-riding escapees from Fairview home were back at the institution Thursday after spending the night commuting between Aurora and Salem. City police picked up the trio as they were waiting to hop a freight for the north again.

Now, you can have a Bendix automatic washer for only $189.95 plus your old washer! No charge for normal installations. See them today! Ralph Johnson Appliances, 355 Center, ph. 3-3139.

OLD BOXES BURNED
City firemen stood by Thursday at the Paulus cannery to be sure that flames from a pile of discarded boxes didn't spread to the nearby veterans' colony. The fruit boxes were being destroyed by the company.

TURNBULL A VISITOR
George Turnbull, former dean of the University of Oregon school of journalism and now professor at Stanford, was in Salem Thursday visiting friends.

HOUSES AUTHORIZED
Building permits were issued Thursday by the city engineer's office to Pade and Keen, house and garage, $10,000, at 1915 N. 24th st., and Emil Pohl, house and garage, $7,850, 330 Oxford st.

COPPER WIRE STOLEN
R. E. Nordyke reported to city police Thursday that two rolls of copper wire were stolen from the Salem Electric warehouse some time recently. The wire was valued at $120.

COMMITTEE TO MEET
The Salem YMCA public relations committee, headed by G. F. Chambers, is to meet at 8 p. m. Monday at the YM to develop a public relations policy for the organization.

McKay Decides Against Action on Clemency Pleas

Gov. Douglas McKay does not intend to take any action in the case of William Nagel, Portland minister, who is under penitentiary sentence for contributing to the delinquency of a minor girl in Klamath county, his office announced Thursday.

Hundreds of letters have been received by Governor McKay during the past few weeks urging clemency.

The state supreme court, in a recent decision, upheld Nagel's conviction in the Klamath county circuit court.

Committee Seeks To Get Tank for Army Day Display

At a progress meeting of the Salem Army day steering committee held Thursday night at the chamber of commerce, it was announced that efforts were being made to obtain a late model army tank for exhibition purposes on Saturday, April 9, at part of the outdoor display of military equipment to be located on the courthouse lawn.

Tentative hours of the openhouse at the armory in the evening were set at 7:30 to 10 p. m., with another display of equipment and a continuous showing of latest army training and combat films.

The steering committee is scheduled to meet again next Thursday to develop final plans for Salem's participation.

Hi-Y to Lay Plans For Convention

Six Salem Hi-Y members, representing all three local chapters, will go to Eugene Saturday to help make plans for the annual statewide Youth in Government program to be held here April 29-30.

Salem planners include James Cooke and Richard Wyatt of Arthur Cotton chapter; Ronald Cocking and Gordon Sloan of Harrison Elliott chapter and Tom Angle and Tom Paulus of Abel Gregg chapter.

Gus Moore of the YMCA here and George Birrell of Salem high school faculty will accompany the group.

Births

BICE — To Mr. and Mrs. Ivan D. Bice, Independence, a daughter, Thursday, March 24 at Salem General hospital.

ROSS — To Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Ross, 1230 S. 16th st., a daughter, Thursday, March 24 at Salem General hospital.

CLARKE — To Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clarke, Stayton, a daughter, Thursday, March 24 at Salem Memorial hospital.

SINGLETON — To Mr. and William Singleton, Brooks route 1, a son, Thursday, March 24 at Salem Memorial hospital.

SALLY'S COATS

SPECTACULAR SPECIAL PURCHASE!

HUNDREDS OF CASUAL AND DRESSY STYLES!

They're a famous National Advertised Line, (We can't say who), But you'll know them the instant you see them!

SENSATIONAL VALUES AT

$ 44

Were Made to Sell at $49.95

$ 49

Were Made to Sell at $55.00

$ 54

Were Made to Sell at $65.00

Sally's

IT'S THE COAT VALUE OF THE YEAR . . . HURRY DOWN FOR YOURS!

The Capital's Style Center

Corner Court & Liberty