

Young Studio Dancers Preview Festival

Women Named To Supervise Census Areas

Two Oregon women have been nominated to supervise districts of Oregon's 1949 business census with headquarters at Bend and Eugene, Monroe Sweetland, democratic national committeeman for Oregon, was advised by the federal census bureau Thursday.

Mrs. Olga Freeman will have charge of the Eugene office which will serve, Linn, Lane, Douglas, Josephine, Jackson, Coos and Curry counties. She is an instructor in mathematics at the University of Oregon but will resign her position there this week.

The Bend office will be in charge of Mrs. Gertrude Arnold, Klamath Falls. She will supervise the business census in Klamath, Deschutes, Lake, Grant, Jefferson, Crook, Wasco and Hood River counties.

Managers of the Portland-Salem area and La Grande census offices were announced last week. Carl Gilson, Portland, will supervise the census in the Portland-Salem district with Robert Gibson in charge of the La Grande office.

All of the Oregon census supervisors will leave Saturday for a month's training in San Francisco.

Dallas Postmaster Awaits Notification Of Appointment

DALLAS, March 24 (Special)—Carl Black, Dallas postmaster, wasn't complaining about the postal service this week, but like many a contest entrant or scorned lover he was watching the mail for a letter that hadn't arrived. Early this week a wire service news item announced confirmation of his appointment as postmaster, but Thursday he had not received official notice.

Black, 32, joined the local staff as substitute carrier in 1940. After serving as clerk and carrier he became acting postmaster in January, 1948, when Tracy Savary resigned due to ill health. An

Hearing on Toledo Cab Firm Set in Newport

Hearing on the application of Jay L. McCrae, doing business as the Sunset Cab company, Toledo, for a permit to operate as a motor common carrier of persons by taxicab anywhere in Oregon, Thursday was set by Public Utilities Commissioner George H. Flagg for April 14 in Newport.

Dallas Lumber Firm to Plant 30,000 Trees

DALLAS, March 24 — Willamette Valley Lumber Co. received 30,000 one-year-old Douglas fir trees at Dallas during the past few days which will be planted on the company's tree farm in this section, according to Richard DeCamp, company forester.

The baby seedlings came from the Forest Industries Tree Nursery at Nisqually, Wash., where more than 8 million were grown last year for planting on private forest lands in Washington and Oregon during this winter and spring.

Hand planting is resorted to only where natural seeding of the harvested forest areas fails because of destruction of seed trees by fire or other causes. More than 95 per cent of all Douglas fir lands reseed naturally from seed trees left for that purpose.

DENVER, March 24 (P)—Outfielder Leroy Paton, property of the Denver Bears of the Western league has been sold to Yakima, Wash., of the Western International circuit. The purchase price was not announced.

army veteran of four years' service, he did postal duty with APO New York and made 11 round-trip Atlantic crossings with the transportation corps. He is a native of Dallas.

Overhead of Local Chest Under Average

Overhead of the Salem community chest is less than the overhead for most comparable chests, according to a study announced Thursday by George Alexander, president of the Salem community chest.

Total costs of year-around administration and of the actual fund campaign were studied for 21 cities in 19 states, all with approximately 50,000 population and $100,000 chests.

Average overhead costs for these cities represented 12.1 per cent of money raised; Salem chest's overhead represented 9.3 per cent.

Alexander said the saving has been the result of conscientious counsel and guidance of the past boards of directors and special volunteer committees plus careful year-around management by the office staff.

The study showed only two cities which operated on less overhead than Salem.

Study of Norway Features Lyons Extension Meet

LYONS — Mrs. Otto Weidman was hostess for the Lyons extension unit at her home Friday. A study of Norway was scheduled. Miss Betty Jean Patterson giving a talk. A Scandinavian smorgasbord luncheon featured the noon hour. Miss Patterson gave a demonstration on "The Use of Broilers."

Otto Wellman Acquires Cafe At Mt. Angel

MT. ANGEL, March 24 — The city council in special session tonight, transferred the liquor license for Mt. Angel from William Bean, Hotel cafe, to Otto Wellman.

In a cash transaction on Wednesday, the Bean business was sold to Wellman who will take possession at once. His eldest son, James Wellman, and Vincent Traeger will take charge.

Bean has been proprietor of the Mt. Angel Hotel cafe for seven years, taking over from Jacob Bergthold, proprietor of the hotel and mayor of Mt. Angel.

Mr. and Mrs. Bean will take a rest for several months.

School Polls Open 2 to 8

MONMOUTH — Polls will be open from 2 to 8 p. m. Monday at the Monmouth high school for the election to determine the consolidation issue involving two high school districts (Monmouth and Independence) and seven non-high school districts (Valley View, Parkers, Oak Point, Suver, Mistletoe, Abrie and Buena Vista).

The notice of the special election defines the issue as solely consolidation. There is no mention of a union high school or a bond issue.

The districts jointly hold an option on a 40-acre plot and there has been some talk of a 20-year serial bond issue for $400,000.

Services Held For Infant Girl

LYONS — Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at Brownsville for the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rammie Martell, born Friday at the Lebanon hospital.

Dallas Reapproves $250,000 School Bond Issue at Polls

DALLAS, March 23 (Special)—Dallas voters overwhelmingly reapproved a $250,000 bond issue for a new elementary school Tuesday.

The margin, 413 to 24, was more decisive than the first balloting last December when the same measure carried 491 to 97. A slight error in advertising the original election made Tuesday's polling necessary.

The new school will be located in north Dallas and construction probably will start in May. Goal is to have the plant ready for students by mid-term next year.
