Pittsburghs Pegged 'Too Old' To Be Grade-A Pennant Threat

SAN BERNARDINO, March 29-(AP)-Take about three years off the average of the Pittsburgh Pirates and it would be necessary to pick them to win the National league pennant. Maybe they'll do It anyway, but most of the smart baseball men out this way think that manager Bill Meyer's outfitespecially the pitching staff-is a little too old to win out in a stretch drive against either Brooklyn or

Also there is the matter of the sutfield. Dixie Walker, long one of the great ones, has reached 38 and can be counted upon only for picework from here on. Walt Jud-nich, obtained from Cleveland to share the chores with Dixie, is 32. So is Johnny Hopp.

Harry Wright, the new Port-land U grid mentor, evidently has lots on the old ball. He raised Aquinas Institute of Rochester N. Y., from just a so-so pigskin level into a real peak of respectability. And, in the meantime, Wright must also have gained the high regard of his football students. The word is that when Harry decided to east in with the Portland school a number of his players, who (mind you) had been primed to enter Notre Dame, changed their minds and vowed to follow him. It all points to a potent Pilot grid picture in the very near

Another Chance

Jersey Joe Walcott can thank the fates that he at least had opportunity. How many men in bictory have had as many chances to snatch the gold-lined heavyweight crown. Jersey Joe almost hit the objective in his first bout with Louis, got another try at the Brown Bomber and now, ironically enough. Louis gives him still a third chance. In June the Bomber will be promoting, Walcott and Ezgard Charles will do the mittslinging for the title which now has a great big question mark wrapped round it. If Walcott, by chance, gains the purple robes (NBA version) in Chicago come June, he should wear them with the grace of a man who knows the breaks at last came his way.

Smart Mat Record

Quite a record has Roy Hutchfrom who grapples under the colors of the local YMCA. Hutchfreen, who dishes out his mat t-lept in the 128-pound class, has lost only six matches in 62 starts over a stretch of 11 years. Pay canned his '49 campaign by enturing the Northwest Y and State AAU titles. If he's still possessor of his winning ways pext year Hutchinson hopes to try for the really big laurels in the national AAU meet back east. Back Together Again

The keystone combination—and a good one—of Shortstop Bud Peter son and Second-sacker Al Spacter operated for the Salem Senators in 1947. It's intact again since Peterson was assigned to the Solons by Portland. And it's a good bet it'll be one of the best duets in the Western International league the coming season. Both Pete and Al will help open the Solons' spring camp Thursday at Corvallis.

Solons Start Thursday

The only thing in doubt Tuesday was the weather as the vanguard of the 1949 Salem Senators prepared to open their threeweek spring training camp on the OSC campus at Corvallis Thursday morning. Weather permitting, Manager Bill Beard will herd his squad into the first tuneups just as fast as it checks in at the Corvallis hotel. He and Business Manager George Emigh expect "around 35 or 40" to be in the camp before the week is out. Twentythree will be signed to contracts. The others will be unsigned rookies who have been invited to try out.

A few of the six players Portland assigned the Solons last week likely will not report at Corvallis until next week, inasmuch as they are already in top playing shape and are ready to go. These would include Bud Peterson, Mel Wesley. Bob Cherry, Jim Wert. Bob Courage and Frank Jarvis. Beard will have until April 7 to line up a "first team," as he is scheduled to open his "grapefruit" schedule of 10 games with Oregon State's Beavers that day.
