Members are: First Violin—Dalbert Jepson, concertmaster; Betty Kuhlman, assistant concertmaster; Frank Holman, Lorene Roberts, Phil Blankenship, Bonnie Litchenberg, Philip Stoehr and Maureen Gustafson, Second Violin—Jerry Brown, principal; Betty Lou Sawyer, Caroline Matter, Roberta Graham, Frieda Carlson and Frances Linton, Viola—Doris McCain, principal; Lillian Bohnenkamp, Martha Bernard, Doris Helen Spaulding and Victor Palmason, Cello—Bernard Sokolow, principal; Caroline Trump, Lucy Collins, Ann Swigart and Louise Matter, String Bass—Walter Buehning, principal, and Gladys Blue, Flute—Emily Stone, Marian Churchill and Marilyn Broer, Oboe—Ann Gibbons and Robert Miller, Clarinet—Jack Proctor, Ron Bartlett and Loren Bartlett, Bassoon—George Hewitt and William Skewiss, Horn—Albert Lund, Frank Combs, Mary Swigart and Maria Pucket, Trumpet—Robert O'Neill and Melvin Hewitt, Trombone—Dean Brooks and LaVerne Hiebert, Percussion—Wayne Mercer.

The Community orchestra, under the direction of Frank Fisher closed its first season with a concert March 27 at Salem high school, but two or perhaps three concerts are to be planned next winter. Fisher, who organized the orchestra last October, expressed pleasure at the response made at the concert by Salem people. "We will welcome suggestions as to types of program and number which Salem people would like us to give next season. This is a community project, and we hope that the whole area will share interest in it," he said. Plans call for auditions in the fall, for orchestra personnel and possible soloists. More players of string instruments are needed, especially adult players, the conductor said. The orchestra was organized to provide a musical outlet for persons in this vicinity who are capable of orchestra performance. The group has practiced weekly during the winter and includes 45 players. Last Sunday's concert was financed by city-minded citizens.

Bartell-Wiens Vows Read

DALLAS — An arbor of daffodils and ivy before the altar banked with calla lilies at the Mennonite Brethren church was the setting for the candlelight wedding ceremony which united Miss Helen Dorothy Wiens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Wiens of Dallas, and Reuben C. Bartell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bartell of Bakersfield, Calif. from at 8 p. m. Friday, March 25, with the Rev. G. H. Jantzen officiating. Miss Estelle Schroeder, Miss Doris Jones and Miss Betty Friesen composed the girls trio and sang "Saviour Like a Shepherd Lead Us." Candelighters were Willie Heinrichs, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Heinrichs, and Richard Wiens, small brother of the bride, Shirley Wiens and Evelyn Loewen, in full length gowns of pink and blue, were the candlebearers. The organist was Miss Ruth Ratzlaff of Salem. The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a white satin wedding gown fashioned with long sleeves, a tight bodice that buttoned down the back and a full gathered skirt with train. A peppin veil from at waist of the gown and was edged with wide lace. Her finger tip veil was held in place by a coronet of white net. The white Bible carried by the bride was topped with pink rose buds. The maid of honor, Miss Berdine Neufeld, wore a gown of pink taffeta and carried a spray of white carnations. Clarence Bartell, brother of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Eldon Neufeld and Wayne Fleming. After the ceremony a men's quartet composed of Ed and John Wall, Leo Friesen and Howard Wiens, sang. A reception followed in the church basement. Mrs. Eldon Neufeld passed the guest book. After a coastal wedding trip the young couple will be at home in Bakersfield, California.

Gary Goulet's Birthday Party Gary Goulet, son of the Homer L. Goulet, will celebrate his eighth birthday today. Missionary Ends CMA Series Here

The Rev. G. C. Ferry, recently from French Indo-China, will speak at the closing services of the annual missionary convention at Christian Missionary Alliance church Sunday morning and evening. Ferry and his wife first went out as missionaries to that country in 1921. His detailed information of that land is vividly portrayed with colored films and slides. Although there is some debate on the origin of meteors, they are probably remains of masses circulating about the sun.

Cabbage Salad Appears in Many a Guise for Most Any Eating Occasion

By Maxine Burns, Statesman Woman's Editor

Cabbage slaw, one of the old fashioned salads, is a mighty versatile food, and good in springtime. It can be simple, sophisticated, hot, cold, crisp or wilted. It can be a whole salad course or simply Fanny Merritt Farmer, dean of cooking teachers, suggests that to make a good cabbage salad, one mixes 2 cups shredded cabbage, 1/2 cup cooked dressing, 1/2 teaspoon caraway seeds, or celery seeds or 1 tablespoon minced onion and 1/4 cup chopped green pepper. This is for four servings. For a buffet supper one cook book suggests using a cabbage shell to hold the slaw. Cut out the center of the head of cabbage. Cut outer leaves in points, pin points back with a long clove and fill with salad. A more sophisticated cabbage salad takes fruit: FRUITED COLE SLAW 1/2 cup sliced canned cling peaches 1/2 cup grapefruit sections 2 cups shredded cabbage 1/4 cup thick sour cream 2 teaspoons vinegar 1/2 teaspoon salt 2 teaspoons granulated sugar Drain and dice peaches and grapefruit; combine with cabbage. Blend together remaining ingredients and pour over peach-cabbage mixture. Toss lightly until well mixed. Serves 4. Dutch slaw makes a more filling dish of the salad: DUTCH SLAW 2 pounds cabbage Boiling water 1 egg 1 tablespoon sugar 1 teaspoon salt Dash of pepper 1/4 cup vinegar Shred cabbage fine, add water cover and cook until tender; egg, add sugar and pour
