Salem high's track and field team, champions of the Class A rision of the Hill Relays for the second straight year, today inaugurate their dual meet season on Olinger oval in a three o'clock clash with Tommy Drynan's Albany Bulldogs. A close session is expected, as the Buildogs are reportedly well balanced in the cinder sport this spring.

Coach Vern Gilmore anticipates numerous Viking points in the running events, but figures he will be nipped in most of the others. Although he has 16 lettermen, most are runners. The Salems are shy of material in the field and jumping events.

Speaking of the Portlands, we for one don't like the looks of that Don Johnson deal just maneuvered by the Yankees and Sacramento. Portland is supposed to have the working agreement with the Yanks, and Portland needs pitching.
