Dodgers' Head Man Believes Flag Due

VERO BEACH, Fla., April 6-(AP)-Burt Shotton is not like most major league managers. He thinks his Brooklyn Dodgers are going to win the National League pennant this season and is not afraid to say for public consumption. 'Sure we'll win the flag," Shotton answers frankly and unhesitatingly, "why shouldn't I say so when I honsely believe it?" The elderly pilot does not expect the Dodgers to make a runaway race of it. On the contrary, he expects the toughest kind of opposion.

"But we'll win in the end." He Branca, Rex Barney, Joe Hatten reiterates, "because we will out-hustle, outrun and outfight the others. We'll also outscore them."

"What F just said doesn't go if we should suffer a serious injury," he warned. "I can't anticipate inteam that can field its regular linejuries. In the final analysis, the up more often than the rest will win the pennant. All things being equal, however, I can't see how any club can beat us." teams resume action Friday afternoon on two local fronts. Coach

This comes as a surprising statement from a man who admits that his outfield still consists of quantity rather than quality; that he in a three o'clock tilt at Waters doesn't know who will open the field.
