

Seen and Heard...

By JERYME ENGLISH

LEGISLATIVE NOTES . . . A number of luncheons and dinner parties on the agenda the past week . . . Gathering at the Senator hotel one day for luncheon with Mrs. Dean Walker . . . were Mrs. Marshall E. Cornett of Klamath Falls, who stopped here Tuesday to visit with friends before going on south . . . she has been in Washington, D. C., and other eastern and southern points since early January . . . mostly on business as Oregon's national republican committee-woman . . . Mrs. Cornett wore a becoming burgundy suit with grey hat and accessories . . . Mrs. Lee Patterson down from Portland for the day to join the visitor and wearing a navy ensemble accented with white . . . Mrs. Arthur Knox chic in a navy blue outfit and Mrs. Walker smartly dressed in a black and white print eton jacket ensemble with black patent accessories and perky black straw chapeau . . . Mrs. Frederick Young of Portland was also down on Tuesday in the interest of PTA of which she is state legislative chairman . . . Honoring Mrs. Joseph E. Harvey of Portland, wife of Representative Harvey, at luncheon during the week was Mrs. Albert C. Gragg . . . The Harveys have had an apartment at the Gragg home during the session and the affair was more or less an au revoir party . . . plans are now the legislature will wind up this week sometime . . . The guest list included a group of Mrs. Harvey's legislative friends . . . after the luncheon Mrs. Paul Geddes of Roseburg, an accomplished organizer, played informally for the group on Mrs. Gragg's melodian. Dinner Time . . . on Wednesday at the Legion club . . . three or four large parties going on at the same time . . . Sen. and Mrs. Jack Bain of Portland were hosts at dinner in honor of Sen. and Mrs. Thomas Mahoney and other democratic senators and their wives with the legislative press as additional guests . . . Mrs. Bain wearing an attractive pearl grey crepe gown ornamented with ruby clips and Mrs. Mahoney receiving in a black crepe dress . . . Camellias given the women guests and pinned on by Miss Lowene Smith of Portland, niece of the Bains . . . Lowene striking in a black crepe "five o'clock" dress . . . Mrs. Robert Holmes drove up from Gearhart that day to join her senator husband for the party . . . she petite and brunette wearing a pretty print frock . . . Sen. Richard Neuberger the master of ceremonies and his wife in a white and black all over print . . . The Dean Walkers also entertained at dinner the same night for the senate tax committee and wives . . . Coming down from Portland for the event were Mrs. Austin Flegel and Mrs. Frank Hilton . . . Mrs. Paul Flegel, who serves as secretary for her father-in-law, a symphony in white . . . All pink and white flowers on the long table with pink tapers . . . Also dining . . . With the Garlen Simpsons were Mr. and Mrs. Ivan White, who are here from Trieste for a month . . . Mrs. White most attractive and wearing a grey and white polka dot outfit . . . The Carl Porters up from Albany and joining the John McCulloughs for dinner . . . The Lowell Kerns and their charming coed daughter, Glen, here from Portland and dining with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hendricks and Ann Carson . . . Glen flies back to New York today to resume her studies at Finch college. DANCING BY . . . at the Tillicum club Easter dance a week ago at the Marion hotel . . . Easter eggs and bunnies on the tables with two large bunnies above the orchestra . . . Mrs. John S. Lochead, who is now headed for Canada, wearing a stunning avocado green satin gown with drape effect at the side . . . A violet crepe gown with tiered skirt of fringe worn by Mrs. E. E. Boring . . . Also choosing violet was Mrs. Harris Lietz, whose crepe frock was designed with a print bodice of the same shades . . . Striking were the many, many strands of pearls Mrs. C. Lester Newman wore with her orchid satin gown . . . Spring prints for Mrs. Elmer Berglund, Mrs. Rollin Lewis and Mrs. Frank Shafer . . . the latter's of white pique with scatter print in shades of blue. AT THE DOG SHOW . . . a steady stream of dog enthusiasts, mostly parents of their children, entering the grandstand building at the fairgrounds all weekend . . . The Salem Lions auxiliary women busy both days serving food and a grand job they did . . . just like a typical restaurant at the fair . . . Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hayes of Portland greeting their Salem friends again and entering their St. Bernards at the show . . . Mrs. Hayes is still thrilled about the trip they took to Switzerland last year and says it reminds her so much of the Willamette valley and hopes to go back soon . . . Three of their children are pretty well scattered now, which means longer trips for the Hayes family . . . Jack is in Detroit . . . Louise (Mrs. Thomas Hayes) is in Washington, D. C., with her air corps husband . . . and Adele is in California . . . Proudly . . . showing their ribbons were Louisa and Deborah Lamb, who entered their Chesapeake Retriever, Diver, in the show . . . and Louisa also won second in the children's handling class . . . Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hoffman were busy with their cockers they had entered in the show . . . and nearby were the J. H. Willetts . . . and again congratulations to Mr. Willett for managing the successful show . . .

Dances Are Scheduled

The Town club will hold its spring dinner dance on Saturday night, April 16 in the Mirror Room of the Marion hotel. Dinner will be at 9 o'clock with dancing following to the music of Glenn Williams and his orchestra. The decorating committee includes Mr. and Mrs. Homer L. Goulet, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Potts and Mr. and Mrs. John Heitzel. Hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Busick, Mr. and Mrs. Garlen L. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith, jr. Cards were in the mail this week to Waverly club members announcing the last dance of the season for Saturday, April 23. The affair will be sports and dinner will be at 9 o'clock followed by dancing at the Marion hotel. Cama club members have changed the night of their dance from April 15 to the fifth Friday of the month, April 29 at Crystal Gardens. Subscription club members will entertain with a formal dinner dance on April 30 at the Marion hotel.

Salem golfers motoring to Portland Tuesday to participate in the OWGA tournament at the Portland Country club will be Mesdames Harold Olinger, Fred Bernardi, John Heitzel, John R. Wood, Werner Brown, R. I. MacLaughlin, Manley Robison, J. H. Thompson, Claude Johns, Howard Wickland and Ivan Marble.

Five Large Benefit Parties On Social Slate For April, Spinster Tea Saturday

April will be highlighted with a number of benefit parties with teas predominating. First on the slate will be the Junior Woman's club Easter Bonnet bridge benefit Monday night at the clubhouse at 8 o'clock. Hats, to be shown by Miller's, will be modeled by Mrs. C. M. Collins, Mrs. Thomas Gabriel, Mrs. William Stewart, Mrs. Terry Randall and Mrs. Ross Coppock. The theme of the revue will be kept a secret until the show begins. Bridge will be in play after the show and guests are asked to bring their own table accessories. Reservations may still be made with Mrs. Arthur Roethlin, Mrs. Donald Cannon or Mrs. Raymond Randall. Spinster Tea Saturday . . . One of the largest affairs of the month will be the annual Easter silver tea for which the Spinsters will be hostesses on Saturday afternoon, April 16 at the North Summer street home of Mrs. Reuben P. Boise. All interested persons are invited to call between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock. Proceeds from the affair will go towards the YWCA building fund. Greeting guests at the door will be Elisabeth Walton, daughter of the James Waltons, and Diane Emigh, daughter of the George Emighs. In the receiving line will be Miss Betty Jean Manoles, chairman of the tea, Mrs. Peter H. Geiser, president of the Spinsters, Mrs. Frank H. Spears, Miss Beryl Holt and Mrs. George A. White of Portland. Presiding at the tea urns during the afternoon will be Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, Mrs. Homer H. Smith, sr., Mrs. Robert E. Shinn, Mrs. Curtis B. Cross, Mrs. Linn C. Smith and Mrs. Edgar T. Pierce. Spinsters will assist about the rooms and serve in the dining room.

Memorial Hospital Auxiliary Tea Thursday, April 21 is the date for the Salem Memorial hospital auxiliary benefit tea. The affair will be held at the North 14th street home of Mrs. Leo N. Childs with the interested public invited to call between 2 and 5 o'clock. Proceeds from the tea will be used to equip the new formula room in the nursery at the hospital. Wednesday Afternoon Literature group of AAUW will meet at the home of Mrs. A. A. Rogers, 330 N. Summer st., at 1:15 p.m. Mrs. W. S. Ankey will review "The Years of the Locust." Mrs. Douglas McKay, wife of Oregon's governor, will not entertain with her weekly at home this Tuesday.

Panhellenic Workshop

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON — Panhellenic members from Willamette university, Oregon State college, and the University of Oregon sororities will meet on the University of Oregon campus Saturday, April 30, for an all-day workshop. Theme of the meeting is "Panhellenic Responsibilities." Panhellenic is the organization for intersorority relationships. Plans for the workshop have been formulated under the combined efforts of Panhellenic organizations on the three campuses and the Eugene City Panhellenic, working in cooperation with the office of Golda P. Wickham, director of women's affairs in the university. This is the second annual event, the first workshop held at Corvallis in 1948.

Ladies guild of St. Mark Lutheran church will serve a tea at 2 o'clock on Wednesday. Hostesses will be Mrs. Cecil Clark, Mrs. Horace McGee, Mrs. G. W. Rolinson, Mrs. C. F. Sieversson, Mrs. George Schultess and Mrs. C. A. Mollett. Royal Neighbors Sewing club will meet Wednesday for a covered dish lunch at 12:30 o'clock with Mrs. Dora Pratt, 115 North 16th street.

Cotton Frocks Blouses
Lingerie made o' day
373 State

Furs
REDESIGNED, REMODELED, RESTORED
Too, we maintain a Winter Igloo, our cold-storage vault for full Winter fur protection. Demolishing, cleaning and glazing a particularity. Insurance, of course.
Ben Wittner Furs
142 South High Street

FROM SAN FRANCISCO
HOEPLER'S CHOCOLATES

Here are Superb Chocolates for Easter!
A perfect gift for Easter is the special Easter package filled with the fine chocolates which have been famous for over 50 years—a remembrance to be appreciated.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO
HOEPLER'S CHOCOLATES

The Quisenberry Pharmacies
THE QUISENBERRY CORNER COURT & COMMERCIAL Phone 3-9123
MEDICAL CENTER BRANCH 2440 GREAT STREET Phone 3-2127
That operate as one

Montgomery Ward
155 N. Liberty Phone 3-3191

Leg Flattery for Easter . . . for yourself . . . for gifts!

Wards CAROL BRENT

PROPORTIONED NYLONS

Fit all sizes!

New Shipment! New Low Price! 149

SIZES:
SHORT—8½ to 9½
MEDIUM—8½ to 10½
LONG—9½ to 11

COLORS:
MIST BEIGE
TAUPE TONE
BROWN MIST

Glamorous sheer 15 denier, 51 gauge! Proportioned through the ankle, calf and thigh as well as the length! All clear Nylon from top to toe. The fine, even seam flatteringly slenderized! Reinforced heel, toe for extra wear!

SHOP WARDS 'TIL 9 EVERY FRIDAY NIGHT

tailored by Handmacher
beautifully tailored... superbly styled... suits that are first, in all america!

as always!
Weathervanes*
we first!

We're properly proud of these wonderful Weathervane Suits . . . they are first for warm-weather comfort everywhere! Cucumber-crisp and lettuce-cool . . . they're wearable and packable . . . cool, crisp rayon that simply refuses to wilt.

a cool $25.00

True silk shantung suit to show off your Easter Bonnet . . . with the typical Handmacher flair for fit and fashion . . . incredibly priced at under $50.

exclusively at esther foster
260 N. High Street Salem, Oregon