

Women's Club Plans Detroit Library Work

DETROIT—The Women's Civic club met at the home of Mrs. Ray Johnson on Wednesday evening with 13 members present.

Mrs. Johnson, vice president, conducted the business meeting. A nominating committee consisting of Mrs. S. T. Moore, Mrs. Earl Parker and Mrs. J. A. Wright was appointed.

Delegates elected to the County Federation of Women's clubs at Macleay April 22 were Mrs. Ray Johnson, Mrs. Archie Mattoon and Mrs. Earl Parker.

Plans were discussed for cleaning the library and getting some more books after which the library will be opened in the old grade school building.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ray Johnson, Mrs. John Weisgerber and Mrs. Nolan Rznick.

The next meeting will be April 20 at the home of Mrs. S. T. Moore.

Washington Guests Visit Turner Home

TURNER—Betty Jo Lee, of Tacoma, has been visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rankin.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Burkland are spending this month vacationing at Palm Springs.

Recent guests at the Albert Robertson home were Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Webb of Mossyrock, Wash.

Instructor

MONMOUTH—Dr. William B. Ragen, professor of elementary education at University of Oklahoma, who will direct a program of graduate studies this summer at Oregon College of Education, Ragen is an editor of the Elementary School Journal. The courses will be in administration, supervision and guidance.

Organist at Linfield

Alexander Schreiner, famous organist of the Salt Lake Tabernacle will play in concert at Linfield college, McMinnville, April 14.

Bean Festival Board Chosen

STAYTON — Directors for the Santiam Bean festival were chosen Tuesday evening.

Lindsey H. Wright was re-elected president and Gil Schachtsick, secretary. New three-year directors are Mrs. Sue Tuel, Mrs. Marie Freres and Edward J. Bell. Hold-over directors are Ernest Dozler, Roy Phillip and John Christensen, one-year; L. H. Wright, Harold Pendleton and Gil Schachtsick, two-year.

Sponsorship of concessions for the festival by the various organizations was agreed upon, with rides to be brought in. Further plans will be made at another meeting of the committee soon for this year's festival and work of starting a new building which will be a civic recreation center, on land which the association bought last year on First street.

Jorgensens Visit Mother at Gervais

GERVAIS—Lawrence and Elmer Jorgensen of Seattle, Wash., spent Sunday with their mother, Mrs. Chris L. Jorgensen, who underwent an operation at a Salem hospital last week, and is now at Woodburn hospital.

Mrs. Michael Conway and Mrs. Mark Snow of Portland spent last Wednesday visiting their sister, Mrs. J. E. Cutsforth.

David L. St. John is again confined to his bed due to a blood clot in his leg.

Full Program Announced for Easter Week

SILVERTON — The Rev. John Walsh is announcing a full program for Holy Week at St. Paul's Catholic church, Silverton, starting with the Blessing of Palms, their distribution and procession at the 8 o'clock Sunday morning mass.

Wednesday night devotions are at 7:45 with the sermon by Father Gelinas, chaplain at the state institutions, concluding a series of seven sermons on the Ten Commandments.

On Holy Thursday there will be mass at 8 a.m., Adoration all day, concluding with Holy Hour from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. Good Friday services are announced for 8 a.m., keeping of the last hour, 2 to 3 p.m. with the "Seven Last Words" and stations of the Cross at 7:45. Holy Saturday ceremonies begin at 8 a.m. Easter Sunday masses will be held at 6:30, 8 and 10 a.m. The children's choir will sing the 8 o'clock mass with high mass by the senior scholar, the first high mass to be sung by the new adult choir.

MITCHELL RECOVERING

Perrydale—Robert Mitchell who suffered a severe heart attack at the Sacred Heart hospital is Eugene while visiting his son, is slowly improving but will be there for several weeks yet. Mrs. Mitchell stayed for 10 days and now divides her time between Eugene and her home here.

Jefferson Fire Group to Back Baseball Team

JEFFERSON — The Jefferson volunteer fire department voted Tuesday to sponsor the Jefferson baseball club this season. Wallace Wickett was named playing manager and announced a meeting Sunday, April 9, to line up players and to organize a league of nearby towns.

New members admitted to the department were Wickett and Bob Magart. President George Richardson stressed the importance of increasing interest and membership in view of the need for city fire department expansion, and the summer projects being planned. The next meeting, will be April 19.

Steve Wall of Eugene was a Sunday guest of his brother, Harry Wall.

At the Tuesday night meeting of Mt. Jefferson Rebekahs, a delegation from Salem LAMP paid an official visit. Nettie Hawk and Lizzie Mills were elected delegates to the assembly at North Bend, with Lavina Cochran and Ada Wells, alternates. Mrs. Cochran was recommended for district deputy president. A Theta Rho girls' club, sponsored by Rebekah and IOOF lodges, will be instituted Saturday afternoon, April 16. The advisory board named is Keith Smith, Lona Armstrong, Lillian Smith, Velma Higgins and Carrie Swanzey. Refreshments were served to 42 members and eight guests by the committee, Bernice Skelton, Alayne Hall, Laura and Flora Thomas and Ida Hartley. Hugh Bilyeu is home from the Albany hospital.

Mrs. Maud Epley is home from the hospital but remains in bed. Here to see her Tuesday were her brother, John Fidler, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fidler of Dallas.

Amity FFA Chapter Wins State Honors

AMITY—The Amity high school chapter, Future Farmers of America, was awarded the gold emblem as second best chapter in the state and Royal Tarter of Amity was chosen state farmer at last week's state FFA convention at Tillamook.

Attending were Tarter and Aner Buczynski, delegates; Dick Burch Murray Dobbins and Jess Cronin, instructor.

BOXLAV by KISLAV

* As seen in Vogue and Harper's Bazaar

The casual glove is more important than ever this spring... Boxlav by Kislav is the perfect casual glove, long wearing and fashion-right. In hand-sewn lighter-weight leather and new spring colors, it is the elegant accessory for all tailored clothes. Guaranteed washable. $7.50

Price's

ARE YOU READY

for

Easter

Hi Not, Call

ELFSTROMS

Color

Is the Answer

The Easter Bunny is using Kem-Tone on his Easter eggs — Old Mother Nature is cooperating with her latest hues in blossoms and flowers — and our drapery dept. has just about the most colorful new drapery materials we've ever seen.

● Solution No. 1 — New Furniture

Have you seen our new Bucks County Provincial line? It's the finest eastern maple in early American design . . . or see our Buffelen custom finished upholstered pieces . . . They're both the answers to those wanting the finest.

● Solution No. 2 — New Floor Covering

New sculptured, tone-on-tone Wiltons, soft floral carpet patterns by Gulistan, Firth, Mohawk, Magee. The Easter bunny gets his ideas from the pastel shades of soft Tumbletwill shag rugs. Your kitchen and bath can be brightened from our wide selection of linoleum and asphalt tile.

● Solution No. 3 — New Wallpaper

New colorful spring patterns by Imperial . . . See the new soilproof Glendura for permanent glamor.

● Solution No. 4 — New Slip Covers

New life for your old tired furniture is yours at minimum cost with our custom-made slip-covers — exquisitely tailored in your choice of fabric. Have draperies custom made to match or correspond.

You Can Always Buy on Budget Terms at the

R.L. Elfstrom Co.

340 COURT PHONE 2-2493

Price's

Presents

An Exclusive And Advance Showing Of Luxurious English Apparel From

- SUITS
- COATS
- ENSEMBLES

Loomed and tailored in Great Britain for those women of good taste to whom superlative quality and enduring smartness is paramount.

Many of the fashions shown await your immediate selection. You may also satisfy your individual taste by ordering to your exact color and style preference the varied coatings and suitings shown . . . these for fall delivery.

Miss Florence R. Harris of Chester Barrie will show and comment on the advance collection for fall showing in our Ready-to-Wear Department Thursday and Friday, 10 to 5:30, April 14th and 15th. You are cordially invited to attend this showing.

Chester Barrie

LOOMED AND TAILORED IN GREAT BRITAIN

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY
APRIL 14th and 15th — 10 to 5:30

PRICE'S . . . 135 North Liberty Street