Your Health

Written by Dr. Herman N. Bondensen, M.D.

Nearly all diseases of the eye—serious as well as trifling—start with inflammation. This is a fact which everybody should know because neglect of a severe disorder of the eye may lead to permanent blindness.

Hollywood On Parade

HOLLYWOOD—Bob Montgomery turns director-star again in "Your Witness." It will be filmed this summer in some English village. Bob's currently acting in, but not directing, "Come Be My Love," which gives Ann Blyth her first comedy role.

John Wayne's one of the few remaining great actors who insist on music on the set. Mood music was common practice in the silents. Accordionist Tony Travers plays tunes to fit the scene, between takes of "A Strange Caravan." Everybody gets into the mood. Grips and electricians don't distract the stars, in tender episodes, with off-stage talk or laughter.
