

Inspecting blossoms in their preparation for Salem's Blossom day this Sunday are these Cherrians and representatives of last year's Cherryland festival court. Left to right: Don Doerfler, chairman of Blossom day arrangements; Vince Rodakowski, Cedric T. Reaney, Fred Starrett, King Bing Deryl Myers, Queen of 1948 Cherryland festival Lois Eggers, Rex Kimmell, Princess LaVonne Mull (1948), Robert M. Fischer, Jr., Princess Virginia Lewis (1948), and Paul A. Hale, secretary of Salem Cherrians. (Jensen-Miller photo).

At Salem Schools

By James Cooke
Statesman School Correspondent

GARFIELD SCHOOL
Parents of Alice Twombly's fourth grade students will be entertained with an assembly at 1:30 p. m. Wednesday. The students will present both a hobby show and a talent show.

Betty Sutherland and Richard Mason will give a rhythm demonstration; Ronald Lee will show a new use of sawdust by making puppet heads and Shirley McKay will demonstrate leather tooling.

A dance interpretation will be given by Carolie Hoffin, Joan Strodde, Doris Heine, David Larson, Dennie Williams and Floyd Hughes.

Papier mache work will be by Junior Kautz and Bob Gelden; finger painting, Sharon Pendleton; weaving, Joe Ganner and Rodney Anderson; clay modeling, Janice Miller.

Violin numbers will be given by Dorothy Vaughn and Joe Wilson. Gayle Cartwright will give a vocal solo.

ENGLEWOOD SCHOOL
Easter bunnies will be given top notice at an Englewood assembly Thursday as first graders, under the direction of Dorothea Bates, present the weekly program.

Students who have parts in the "Bunny Play" are Dick Hoffman, Joyce Hanson, Beverly Kenyon, Ann Lenheart, Nancy Lillie, Kathy Fallin, Joan Goodman and Scott Maxwell.

BUSH SCHOOL
The story of Hansel and Gretel was given in song, dance and dialogue by Mrs. Grace Stenback's fourth grade at an assembly program recently.

Main characters were Jack Moore as Hansel; Lucia Wilcox, Gretel; Karen Flory, mother; Norman Parker, father; and Jean Hubbard as the witch. Thomas Brown acted as announcer.

Nancy Webb and Janelle Duns-moor played piano solos between the acts. Stage properties were made by the pupils.

LESLIE SCHOOL
Leslie physical education classes will stage a gym show Thursday at 7:30 p. m. The program will consist of demonstrations of class work including calisthenics, folk dancing, marching, state physical tests and various intramural sports.

It is under the direction of Jim Dimit and Lucille Wilson, physical education instructors. The public is invited, and there will be no admission charge.

Salem Paint Firm Gets State Contract For Second Year

Oregon's highways and signs will be decorated with Salem-made paint, from Norris-Walker Chemical company, for the second straight year, it was announced Wednesday.

The firm secured the contract for the ensuing year's full supply of non-beaded lacquer paint, both white and yellow. The current year's contract was for yellow only.

Norris-Walker will supply 45,000 gallons of yellow and 3,000 gallons of white paint, approximately eight carloads. The firm was the lowest bidder whose product met all specifications. Bids were submitted by 13 companies. Price on the yellow paint was $1.38 per gallon.

Roeder Edits Aptitude Tests

Wesley Roeder, former Salem resident who is now associate professor of psychology at the University of Portland and director of the northwest guidance and counseling center, has just published a new series of vocational aptitude tests, released by the California Test Bureau.

The tests have been standardized in 25 high schools and 14 colleges of the northwest, including Willamette university and Salem High school.

Woodburn Hi To Give Drama

WOODBURN — "Arsenic and Old Lace," the three-act comedy by Joseph Kesselring, will be presented by the junior class of Woodburn high school at the school auditorium Thursday, April 14, at 8 p. m. The play is under the direction of Frank P. McDonnell, class advisor. Leading players include Patricia Withers, Beatrice Keener, Tom Stampley and Fred Cummings.

Meisenheimer, Irving Bond, Velmer Stretch, Vicky Moran, Gerald Crane, Eugene Hindman, Arthur Nelson, Paul Addie, Rex Bothum and Duane Monnier. Heading the play's management is Lois Granner, assisted by Barbara Dixon. The stage is under the direction of Virgil Toepfer and Leroy DeJardin.

Hayesville Man's Birthday Honored

HAYESVILLE — The Peter Reitzensteins and children, Geraldine, Richard and Allen, will soon move to their 40-acre tract in Hazel Green district, which they purchased recently from a Zielinski estate.

The Victor Cooleys were hosts Sunday to a group of friends at a dinner which honored Mrs. Cooley's father, Henry Jaquet of Victor Point, on his 80th birthday.

Present were Charles Saucy, Mrs. Ruth Reynolds, Alice Mathey, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Berger, Jimmie and Jackie, Mr. and Mrs. Emory goodie, Elvin, Wayne and Yvonne, Alice Jaquet, PFC Robert Cooley, David, Carl and Paul Cooley and the hosts.

Monday night at their scout cabin, members of Boy Scout troop the most perfect fit story ever told . . .

No more wrinkled ankles or twisted seams . . . Round-the-Clock Individual Fit Nylons give you the perfect fit your pretty legs deserve. The secret is a wide range of patterns, pre-made to individual measure, and a simple little system that selects the perfect pattern for your own height, weight and leg curves. You'll never know complete hosiery beauty until you experience this perfect fit!

$1.50 .. $1.95!

Price's

135 North Liberty

Today and Friday - - - 10 a. m. to 5:30 p. m.

Price's

PRESENTS
AN EXCLUSIVE
AND ADVANCE
SHOWING
OF LUXURIOUS
ENGLISH
APPAREL
FROM

Chester Barrie

LOOMED AND TAILORED IN GREAT BRITAIN

135 NORTH LIBERTY STREET, SALEM, OREGON

Chester Barrie

- ★ SUITS
- ★ COATS
- ★ ENSEMBLES

Loomed and Tailored in Great Britain for those women of good taste to whom superlative quality and enduring smartness is paramount.

Many of the fashions shown await your immediate selection. You may also satisfy your individual taste by ordering to your exact color and style preference the varied coatings and suitings shown . . . these for Fall delivery.

Miss Florence R. Harris of Chester Barrie will show and comment on the advance collection for fall showing on our Ready-to-Wear Department today and Friday, 10 to 5:30. April 14th and 15th. You are cordially invited to attend this showing.