

Sederstrom Elks Medal Leader

The qualifying pace in the annual Elks-sponsored Willamette Valley links tourney slowed down Sunday because of Easter and Blossom day after a big burst of initial action Saturday. By Sunday night some 65 swingers had turned in qualifying scores for the big meet but the figure is expected to hit in the neighborhood of the 250 mark by the time the qualifying deadline arrives next Sunday night.

Holding medal honors thus far is Bob Sederstrom of Salem who rapped a 33-35-68 Saturday. In the No. 2 slot is Frank Albrich, also of Salem, who Sunday totaled 36-35-71.

Others in the top ten to date include: Ned Ingram, 72; Glen Langren and Bob Burrell, 73; Lawrence Alley and Ralph Mapes, 74; Bert Victor and Harold Olinger, 76; Bud Waterman and Floyd Baxter, 76. The field for the opening round of play the weekend of April 29-May 1 will be comprised of around 16 flights. Losers in first-rounders will drop down to form new flights. Two losses eliminate the contestant.

Dick Yost, Oregon State student, is defending champion. He turned back Glen Langren in last year's finals.

Vik Trackmen Try Gresham Here Today

Salem high's Viking trackmen will go for the win column again today in an Olinger field meet at three o'clock with the Gresham Gophers, reputedly a strong track and field outfit. Coach Vern Gilmore's troupe, after winning the Hill Relays and dual meets with Albany and Milwaukie, dropped the Willamette Valley Invitational at Springfield last Thursday night by two points. That was their only loss of the season.

While the Gilmores are going against Gresham today, Coach Harold Hauk's baseball team will be at Milwaukie to play the Maroon nine, at three o'clock also. The Vikings play the Oregon State Rocks here Wednesday afternoon.

The track team's next outing will be in the Hayward Relays at Eugene Friday.

W-Salems Play Parrish Nine

Coach Bill Hanauks's West Salem Junior high baseballers will try to enter the win column for the first time in league play today in a four o'clock mix with the loop-leading Parrish Pioneers. The game will be played on the West Salem diamond.

In league play thus far, Leslie's Rockets hold a win over West Salem and Parrish, coached by Clay Eggeston, has a win over Leslie.

Woodburn Tourney Set

WOODBURN—The first men's golf tournament at the Woodburn Golf course will be Sunday, April 24. All participating men are asked to be at the club house by 9 a.m. that morning to choose sides for the day's play. Directors of the club met Thursday night at the clubhouse with Clyde Smith, president, presiding, to determine playing policies for the season.

Boosters Hold Annual Spree

Salem Senator Boosters, ball-players and officers, assorted songsters and speakers, and all other hungry, last night waded into the annual pre-season spree in the lobby of Waters field. Approximately 250 were on hand to eat, drink and make with the pre-Western International league cheer.

Down from Portland to help with the pitching were Manager Bill Sweeney and Gen. Mgr. Bill Mulligan. Both spoke briefly. So did Manager Bill Beard and Bus. Mgr. George Enigh of the Senators. Al Loucks, vice president of the Salem Breakfast club acted as master of ceremonies, and other Booster organization members who spoke were Past-president Ira Plicher and Publicist Chuck Barclay.

All hands left primed to make the Senators' home opener April 29 a jam-packed success.

COUNTY LEAGUES PLAY
The Marion County B league baseball schedule for today has Turner playing at Gervais, Chemawa at North Marion, Aumsville at Sublimity and St. Paul at Jefferson.

MARION-POLK PLAY
Marion-Polk league baseball play for today according to the schedule, has Monmouth at Salem Bible academy, Independence at Philomath and Stayton at Sacred Heart Academy, all in the afternoon.

Good Scores in PITA Shoot

The seventy-five shooters who climaxed the second day firing in the Salem Trapshooters club PITA registered session Sunday had the satisfaction of carding much better than average scores in the day's three major events. For Class A 16-yarders, John Werline of Independence won the title with 98x100. Four tied for second at 96, C. Fox of Merrill and Ray Glass, Cal Ray and Gordon Miller of Eugene. In the Class B division Salem's Ted Welty had a near-perfect 99 to tie with E. Brickley of Eugene, one hit better than second place Hank Peters of Sublimity. G. W. Boyd of Valseth and the Class C top with a 97 score and D. C. Fish of Vancouver was second at 94. Salem's R. D. Woodrow was Class D titlist with 95. E. Davis of Centralia was next with 92.

In the Handicap event Sunday, Ray Dunckel of Independence, R. Kellogg of Longview and M. Deeds of Springfield, all with 93, shared the top. Mrs. Ruth Ray of Eugene and G. H. Gochnaur of Falls City, Wash., tied for the next place at 92. C. C. Jacoby of Toledo had 46x50 to win the doubles event. L. C. Coates of Salem was second at 44. The Sunday firing was not connected with that done Saturday, the first day.

Stojack, Truman Vie Tonight

Former WSC football All-American Frank Stojack has made a fistful of defenses for his Coast Junior heavy mat title belt in the local arena, but none is expected to be as swift and action-laden as the one he has on

BILL (BULL) BRENNER
FRANK STOJACK
He hands tonight against Handy Andy Truman, the El Paso speed-

ster who has been somewhat terrific in his recent Salem showings. Stojack will have a 10-pound weight bulge over Truman. But the clever Andy can more than make up for that with his cat-like maneuvers and pet "cartwheel" hold. When Truman gets the cartwheel on his opponents, big or little, they don't get up. The same might be said for Stojack's giant-whirl airplane spin, one of the best in the business.

Three prelims are on the menu also, instead of the usual two. In the opener squat and mean newcomer Tony Fagelli goes against Sugi Hyamak. That one is at 8:30 o'clock. Then Bill Sledge tackles Bill (Bull) Weidner. After that one Tex Tager tries Iron Mike Naserlan, a real toughie. All three prelims loom as better than average. And to make it a complete all-star show, Harry Elliott will do the refereeing.

Solons Lose, Win Tilts, Wait Opener at Tacoma

Salem's Senators, rapidly approaching their WIL zero hour Friday night at Tacoma, broke even in their last prefranchise engagement and today waded into their next-to-last workout, here at Waters park. The Salems Sunday lost to Portland U 7-6 at Waters, but

Monday afternoon shelled the Oregon College of Education Wolves, 14-0, at Monmouth in seven innings. For their pre-league games the Solons won seven, lost three.

Bus Sporer and Ray McNulty took good pitching care of the Wolves Monday, checking them to a lone single, a bounce over second base in the sixth inning by Outfielder Jim Wilson, off McNulty. Meanwhile, the Salems bashed out 13 blows off Hank Decker, Bob Funk and Claude Buckley. Only Buckley of the three was effective. Seven OCE boots didn't help the flingers.

Although a trifle wild, Sporer had fine stuff in his four frames and looked every bit like the winning pitcher he could be if his control only holds up. He fanned four, McNulty three, Hill Beeson, with three hits, led the Salems at bat.

In their Sunday afternoon venture, the Senators picked the wrong day to blossom forth before the home folks. They kicked in four errors, looked impotent but against Portland's Rod Owens and got spotty pitching to go down before the collegians.

Glenn Miller, Bill Osborn and Clyde DeWitt, in that order, did the pitching. They gave 10 hits and eight bases on balls. The Solons could capture only eight hits, and exactly one, Jimmy Wert's towering triple against the right-center field fence in the eighth, was for extra bases. The walk-off, followed by Mel Wasley's line-out to center tied the score at 6-6 for Salem. But Coach Mush Torson's Portlanders came right back in the ninth to tally off DeWitt and take the game. Wert was the only Senator to get more than a single blow.

The Solon pitching had no mystery for Hal McKee. Pilot second sacker from Woodburn. He had a double, three singles and a walk in five trips.

Although they bobbed four times afield, the Senators committed a couple/other mental miscues also. It just wasn't one of their better days in their grapefruit campaigning much to the dismay of the 250 patrons who turned out to see it.

Now no longer an outfielder, which is okeh by him, Big Jim Olson has been returned to the pitching mound, where he won 17 times for the Salems last season. Olson's outfielding was but an experiment and Mgr. Beard can now feel that he has another winning pitcher on his staff. Also, infielder Doug Stevenson, the Tacoma hockey player, and Catcher Frank Jarvis, former Linfielder have been released to Klamath Falls outright.

Armory Scraps Wednesday

All is in readiness for the 28-round boxing show at the armory Wednesday night, and tickets went on sale Monday at Maples. The promising 10-round main event is between the rugged Portland Indian Dick Wolfe and Ashland's Johnny Pancho, physical education and boxing instructor at Southern Oregon college who has been a main eventer of note in southern rings. It will be in the welterweight class. So will the six-round special between Salem's Dean Abney and Eddie Johanson, tough Klamath Falls contender.

The three four-rounders: Joe Pete, Salem vs. Jimmy Ogden, Portland, featherweights; Les Webb, Portland vs. Don Doyle, Seattle, lightweights; Mack Dennis, Portland vs. Johnny Hoffert, Salem, lightweights.
