Scribes Like Red Sox, Braves

NEW YORK, April 18-(P)-The 1949 world series will be an all-Boston affair in the opinion of the nation's major league base-

In an annual pre-season policenducted by the Associated Press, 70 out of 120 scribes picked the Red Sox to dethrone the Cleveland Indians in the American league. The world champion drew only 42 first place votes and trail Joe McCarthy's men in total points, 873 to 902.

The defending champions Braves of the National league drew fewer first place ballots than Brooklyn - - 44 to 52 - - but piled up enough seconds and thirds to nose out the Dodgers, 938 to 832 points. In all, six National league firsts. The St. Louis Cardinals, with seven first place ballots, placed fourth. Only other National league club to receive first York Giants, who wound up fifth ahead of Philadelphia, Chicago and Cincinnati. The Reds were almost a solid cellar choice with 93 nominations for the bottom

Only two American league clubs besides Boston and Cleveland were flattered by first place nomination. The New York Yankees, despite the absence of Joe Dimaggio from the lineup, were picked to win the flag by five experts. They ranked third with 666 points. Right on their heels were the Philadelphia Athletics, who received three first place ballots and 632 points. Detroit headed the second division, followed by St. Louis, Washington and Chi-

Locke Tops 'Stran' In Cavalier Playoff

By Robert Moore
VIRGINIA BEACH, Va., April 18-(AP)-Bobby Locke of Johanmesburg, South Africa, kept a promise today

The muffin-faced professional had vowed a week ago that "my golf game will come around again soon."

"Soon" turned out to be today. Locke took advantage of amateur Victor Frank Stranahan's wildness and his poor putting to beat the strong Beaver Netmen man from Toledo, Ohio, by two strokes in their 18-hole playoff Blank Bearcats for the Cavalier Specialists golf

Locke, the most consistent of the 20 top-drawer professionals to Willamette university's netters, 7 play in the Specialists tourney, to 0. toured the par 69, 6,065-yard Cavalier Country club course in 68. He played the front side in even par 35 and scored a one-underpar 33 coming back.

Stranahan, meantime, was out in 34 and back in 36 for a one-

The victory was little more than an honor for Locke. He already had pocketed the $1,500 top money by posting the low professional score yesterday.

Stranahan's downfall came on he par four, 392-yard fourteenth hole. He took a six. Frank's first tee shot landed out of bounds to the right. He sent a second down the fairway but could barely make the green with a five-iron shot. Then he laid a first putt to within 30 inches of the hole but couldn't get the next one to drop. A skimpy 9,195 crowd saw Lefty Locke, meanwhife, was on the Ken Heintzleman Ruin Boston's velvet in two and holed out with Locke, meanwhife, was on the
