SACRAMENTO, April 18—Wilbert L. MacCabe, 45, San Carlos, Calif. banker, was killed Friday when his small two-seater plane crashed into an unoccupied home at Sacramento, Calif. Residents of the area said they heard the plane's motor sputtering just before the crash. (AP Wirephoto to The Statesman).

Women's Club Holds Meet At Woodburn

WOODBURN — Woodburn's Rural club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Burt Byers on Wednesday with a no-host luncheon and business meeting. Mrs. Nela Detweiler was welcomed as a new member.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. H. A. Lohse and 27 answered roll call. Delegates were elected to attend the county convention April 22 at Macleay Grange hall. Those chosen were Mesdames Emma Weber, E. C. Peyton, Alice Haas, Anna May Applegate and Joan Bruninger. Alternates are Mrs. Charles Dean, Mrs. Earl Dunn, Mrs. Byers, Mrs. John Coleman and Mrs. Jennie Earl.

The club voted to make a donation to the library. For next meeting on May 12, members will bring clothes and money for the children's farm home at Corvallis.

Officers elected for the coming year were those who served this year. They are Mrs. Lohse, president; Mrs. M. H. Pillsbury, vice president; Mrs. Peyton, secretary; Mrs. Coleman, treasurer; and Mrs. Roy Seely, publicity chairman.

Central Howell—Mr. and Mrs. John Siems are building a new home on their farm in this district. Siems is from Silverton. Mrs. Siems is the former Mae Ask of Salem.

Spring Valley — Mrs. Harvey McLaughlin was hostess for a social meeting of the Spring Valley Sun-shine club at her home Wednesday.

Flower Show Plans Made At Woodburn

WOODBURN—Committees and rules for the annual spring flower show sponsored by the Woodburn Garden club Saturday, April 23, at the Schuler building on North Front street were announced this week by Mrs. John Ramage, general chairman.

The club met Tuesday at the library club rooms, with Frank Covey, president, presiding. The evening's program featured talks by Mrs. Henry Miller and Mrs. Ramage, who have recently returned from trips to Hawaii and eastern cities.

The spring flower show will be held from 1 to 9 p.m. Competition is open to any and all amateurs.

Mt. Angel Garden Club Plans for Primrose Show

MT. ANGEL—Plans are being made this week for the Mt. Angel primrose show to be held in city hall Sunday, April 24.

On display at Fisher's pharmacy is the ornate silver trophy which will be awarded to the sweepstakes winner. It was donated by the Mt. Angel city council.

Special narrow tables, that will permit displaying plants in single rows to show to the best advantage, have been completed and will be arranged around all sides of the hall.

The lumber was donated by Bert Ebner, member of the Garden club which is sponsoring the show. Ebner also donated his time and labor in building the tables, as did also Joe Michels and the Mt. Angel Lumber company which supplied one man for the work.

Roberts—Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Marsh and daughters, Leone and Lois, and Mrs. John Clearwater, relatives and neighbors of Billy Harp, helped him celebrate his 7th birthday, Saturday afternoon.
