Cash, Dynamite Stolen Here in Two Burglaries

Burglars escaped with $534 in currency from the Dutch Mill tavern, 897 N. Commercial st., sometime early Monday, city police detective reported.

The money, in two money bags, was taken from a booth hiding place at the tavern, Owner Fred Shay told police. Entrance was apparently gained by slipping the lock on the front door.

Second theft of dynamite from the city tool house at 3000 N. River rd. in less than a month was reported also Monday.

Two dozen sticks were taken from a tool box in the building. The thief pried open a shutter to gain entrance. The place was ransacked, but the dynamite was the only loss reported. Several sticks were stolen from the tool house March 31.
