Art Association To Show Films

Two moving pictures, to be presented by Salem Art Association and Willamette art department, 8 p.m., at Waller hall, are "Hymn of the Nations" and "Monuments of Ancient Mexico", both from the Museum of Modern Art in New York City. The public is invited to attend.

David Dumaway, chairman of the activities committee of the art association, said Monday that "Hymn of the Nations" which was produced in 1943 by OWI for European distribution, stars Arturo Toscanini, Jan Peerce, the Westminster Choir and the N.B.C. Symphony orchestra. Music in the film is Verdi's, including the Overture to La Forza Del Destino.

The second film, which was produced in technicolor, depicts 1000 years of Aztec and Mayan cultures, their temples, idols and frescoes.

On Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. When should the postal card be used in correspondence?
A. The postal card, excepting the picture varieties, should be used for business purposes only, not for social correspondence.
Q. Is it proper to invite the minister and his wife to the wedding reception?
A. Yes, it is the most courteous thing to do.
Q. How should one remove a fishbone from the mouth?
A. Take it from the mouth, lips as close together as possible, between the thumb and finger.
