

Summer Head For Athletics

SILVERTON—A full-time athletic director for the summer is being planned by Silverton Recreation association of which Wade Scott is president. First plans for this were laid Monday night at the meeting of the association.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Martinson of Corvallis, present to discuss the directorship, stated that Silverton was far in advance of many larger communities in recreational and other facilities. Martinson is to give an answer in two weeks and otherwise will aid in obtaining one.

The association also voted to organize a class in photography, and any one interested was asked to enroll with William Hanson at the McEwan studio.

Mrs. Robert Nelson reported that the Jay-C-Ettes would supervise girls' activities on Wednesday nights. C. T. Carter was appointed to contact business firms and organizations to obtain sponsors for soft ball teams for the spring and summer. The group also agreed to buy a timeclock for the newly installed lights in the Eugene Field played when sufficient lights were in use, and to send a representative to the monthly Boy Scout round table.

Turner 8th Grade Sets Plays Friday

TURNER.—The eighth grade of Turner grade school will present two one-act plays in the school auditorium at 8 p.m., Friday, April 22.

The cast of the drama "The Heritage" includes Harold Squires, Maxine Ortleib, Alan Ward, Lorenne Edwards and Darrel Merlie. In the comedy "Sparkin'" are Nancy Manning, Viola Davenport, Wanda Stinnett and Eugene Tucker.

Silverton Program Friday for Band

SILVERTON—Johnny Carpenter of Portland is to be master of ceremonies at the uniform benefit sponsored by the Band Parents' association Friday, April 22, at 8 p.m.

Acts from Mt. Angel, Woodburn, Monitor, Salem, Portland and other communities will be given. The numbers run the gamut from comedy, through oldtime fiddlers and symphonic violin renditions to a mixed chorus of 60 voices and a family orchestra. There will also be dancers from Armstrong school of dancing and from Salem high school, Jack Spong, Salem magician, and an Indian costume act from Cub pack 52.

Mrs. Zuricker Heads Salem Heights Club

HULSEY — Mrs. Kenneth Zwicker was elected president of the Salem Heights Mothers club in a meeting last week.

Other new officers are Mrs. George Beane, vice-president; Mrs. Leon Frohm, secretary, and Mrs. J. Graber, treasurer.

Speakers were Mrs. Katherine Loazit, superintendent of Hillcrest school, and Mrs. Agnes Booth, Marion county school superintendent.

SALEM HIGH SCHOOL
Jim Rock and Tom Angle were nominated for next year's senior class presidency during a junior class nomination assembly Wednesday.

Elections will be held April 29 and 30, the same date as sophomore class members elect their class officers for next year. The sophomores will meet this morning to nominate candidates.

WEST SALEM JUNIOR HIGH
Mrs. Ora Smith's sewing classes are working on a project which will change their home economics classroom into a typical living room. The girls are making drapes and slip covers to be used with a sofa and chair set given them by the Sears, Roebuck's Foundation fund. Plans are to have at least part of the project completed by May 6, date for a Mothers' tea.

Bill Hanuska, West Salem athletic coach, recently presented basketball letters to eight members of the school team entered in the junior high league last winter. Boys who received letters were David Bayer, Warren Clemens, Ted Reinwald, Allen Fleisher, Bill Jaquith, Bill Nelson, Gene Froedisch and Bruce Wendt.

Orchestra letters were presented by Mrs. Virginia Howell, who also gave lyre-shaped pins for two years' membership to Shirley Loewen, Anne Richey, Angela Hartman, Ann Gallap, Phil Ritchey, Jerry Curtis, Barbara Culbertson, Keith Johnson, Jan Crenshaw, Margret Lutz, Raymond Utterback and Karen Johnson.

Lyre-shaped letters for one-year membership were given to Mel

HIGHLAND SCHOOL
Highland orchestra members recently entertained the school with a concert consisting of numbers they learned this year. They plan to give a similar concert for the Highland Mothers' club, but a date for this program has not been set.

The orchestra consists of: Violins, Gladys Kirkman, James Clifton, Janice Butler, Ronald Brown,
