Chocolate, Peppermint Combination Is To Be Found In Many Favored Recipes

By Maxine Bures
Statesman Woman's Editor

Next to chocolate, we like peppermint flavor best. And we like peppermint flavor next to chocolate flavor too.

Chocolate coated peppermint creams, chocolate cake with mint icing, chocolate angel food cake flavored with peppermint and chocolate pudding with peppermint marshmallow topping. Those are all luscious combinations, hard to resist.

Here's such a combination, as sent by a cooking expert for the makers of shortening:

RED DEVIL'S FOOD CAKE

2 cups sifted cake flour
1/2 cup shortening
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup cocoa
2 eggs
1/2 cup milk
2 teaspoons soda
1 cup boiling water
1 teaspoon vanilla

Line the bottom of two 8-inch cake pans with wax paper. Cream the lard, add sugar and cocoa. When thoroughly creamed, add eggs and beat well. Add flour alternately with milk in which soda has been dissolved. Add boiling water and vanilla. Pour batter into cake pans. Bake in moderate oven (350 F.) for 30 minutes. Twelve servings.

Peppermint Frosting

1/2 cups sugar
1 tablespoon white corn syrup
5 tablespoons water
2 egg whites
1/2 cup crushed peppermint stick candy

Combine all ingredients except candy in top of double over boiling water. Remove from fire but leave over hot water and beat 7 minutes longer. Add candy to frosting and spread on cake.

One birthday cake that combined these popular flavors, is made by icing a chocolate with white frosting, and placing one of the popular dollar mints so that there's one for every serving. It is a good looking cake decorated with candies and is distinctive to eat too. Make regular chocolate roll, and for filling, use a peppermint marshmallow filling made thus:

PEPPERMINT MARSHMALLOW WHIP

1 egg white
1/4 cup warm syrup
Peppermint flavor

Cook over syrup to a soft ball, pour slowly over the egg which has been beaten stiff but not dry. Add peppermint flavor to taste, and whip until it thickens. If an electric beater is used, allow to whip for some time until thick.

Mrs. Roy H. Mills has returned from a stay at her beach place at Nelscott. Joining her was her daughter, Mrs. Elliott Price and three children of Camas, Wash.
