

'Hiring Halls' Ruled Illegal

WASHINGTON, April 21—(AP)—A "hiring hall" plan for seamen was declared illegal Tuesday by the National Labor Relations board, although union leaders have said they will strike if necessary to preserve the system.

The board said the plan now used on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts by the National Maritime Union (N.M.U.) and American Radio association (A.R.A.), both C.I.O. is contrary to the Taft-Hartley law.

The board had outlawed similar contract provisions on the Great Lakes last August. The N.L.R.B. ruled that union members are favored for jobs under the hiring halls "beyond the preadventure of doubt."

The Great Lakes decision is being appealed to the federal court of appeals. A C.I.O. official yesterday told congress that unless lawmakers lift the T-H ban on hiring halls, union seamen will strike when their contracts expire June 15.
