Plaques From French Rail Car Missing

Members of 40 et 8 Marion county voiture 153, are searching for four plaques missing from a French railway box car entrusted to their care, they reported Saturday.

The box car was part of the French "merci" train which visited Salem several months ago. It was given to the Oregon 40 et 8, which in turn loaned it to the Marion county voiture for use at its state convention here next August.

The car was originally covered with a total of 40 plaques. Four were discovered missing recently. They are brightly colored flat objects about 12 by 8 inches, made of a sort of pressed wood and contain French inscriptions.

"Their absence mars the beauty of the car," a member said. "They are irreplaceable and we want them back. They should be returned to the Legion hall on South Commercial street or sent to Brazier Small, chef de gare of the Marion county voiture."
