On Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. When a man meets a woman acquaintance on the street, and turns to walk with her, should he offer to carry any parcels that she may have in her arms or hands?

A. It would be the courteous thing to do, provided the parcels are rather large or heavy, but somewhat silly if the woman is merely carrying a book, or some package.

Q. What is the average amount of the fee the bridegroom gives the clergyman?

A. Usually from ten to fifty dollars, according to the bridegroom's financial ability.

Q. Is it true that any kind of invitation may be extended over the telephone?

A. Yes, with one exception, and that is a formal invitation.

Tea, Flower Show At Jefferson

JEFFERSON—Plans are complete for the third annual library benefit silver tea and flower show to be sponsored by the Jefferson Women's club today in the city hall between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock. ### Ground Round

Ground Meat Serves Busy Housewife As Aid to Budget, Cooking Time

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Women's Editor

There's always hamburger. Ground beef, or hamburger if you know your meat man, is a boon to the housewife who must cut down on the budget or on dinner making time.

Here are several suggestions:

- #### SWEDISH MEAT BALLS
- 1 pound ground beef
  - 1/4 cup finely chopped onion
  - 1 teaspoon salt
  - 1/4 teaspoon pepper
  - 1/4 teaspoon allspice
  - 1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
  - 1 egg
  - 1 slice dry bread
  - 1/2 cup flour
  - 2 tablespoons shortening
  - 2 tablespoons flour
  - 2 cups water
- Combine meat, onion, seasonings and egg. Dip bread in water and squeeze dry. Crumble bread into very small bits and add to meat mixture. Mix well. Form into small balls 1-inch in diameter. Roll in flour and brown in hot shortening. When all the balls are well browned, remove from skillet. Pour off drippings, measure back two tablespoons drippings. Add 2 tablespoons flour. Stir until smooth. Gradually add water, stirring constantly until thickened. Return meat balls to frying pan. Cover and simmer about 15 minutes. Season gravy to taste. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

- #### BEEF AND RICE BALLS
- 1 pound ground beef
  - 1 tablespoon grated onion
  - 2 tablespoons chopped green pepper
  - 1 teaspoon salt
  - 1/2 teaspoon celery salt
  - 1 clove garlic
  - 1/2 cup rice
  - 2 cups tomato juice
  - 4 whole cloves
  - 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
  - 2 tablespoons sugar
  - 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
- Wash rice. Drain. Combine beef, onion, green pepper, salt, celery salt, minced garlic, add rice. Form into balls about 1 1/2 inches in diameter. Heat tomato juice, cloves, cinnamon, sugar and Worcestershire sauce in a heavy skillet. Drop in meat balls. Cook lightly. Simmer 50 minutes. Makes 5 to 6 servings.

- #### WHOLE-MEAL HAMBURGERS
- 1 1/2 pounds lean ground beef
  - 4 cups finely shredded raw potato
  - 4 cups finely shredded raw carrot
  - 1 large onion (finely grated)
  - 2 teaspoons salt
  - 1/2 teaspoon pepper, fat (for frying)
- Mix beef, potato, carrot, onion, salt and pepper together in a large mixing bowl; shape into 6 or 12 patties. Heat a few tablespoons of fat in a large heavy skillet; add patties and pan-brown slowly about 15 minutes, or until evenly browned. turning occasionally. The cover and cook 15 minutes longer or until cooked through (The small patties will cook in less time). Makes 6 servings.
