

Valley News Briefs

Turner—Mrs. William Johnson (the former Edith Boyer) and daughter arrived here last week from California to visit with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Boyer.

Orchard Heights—E. J. DeWitt, former Orchard Heights resident who suffered a stroke recently, has recovered sufficiently enough to leave bed. Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt now are making their home in West Salem.

Popcorn—Mr. and Mrs. Curt Miller, Highland, Kan., have been visiting at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Withers and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Simmons.

Orchard Heights—Frank Wilson has received word of the death of his twin brother, Fred, in Casey, Iowa. Wilson will be 81 on May 30.

Jefferson—Mrs. Chris Farmer was hostess to the Willing Workers club at a business session and quilting party last week in her home at Looney Butte.

Hayesville—Mrs. James Sumpter, co-operator of the Friendly Farm restaurant, is recovering satisfactorily in Salem General hospital from a blood infection. Maynard Cothren is in the same hospital for observation. Mrs. Scottie Smith is confined at her home with arthritis, and will welcome visitors.

Gervais—The St. Rita Altar society will sponsor a benefit card party at Sacred Heart hall Sunday night at 8 p.m. Proceeds will be used for equipping the school grounds. Mrs. Martin Seifer is chairman of the committee in charge of the event.

Gervais—The Gervais Women's Fireman auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Lige Eaton Thursday night. Plans were discussed for sponsoring a teen-age dance weekly at the fire hall.

Woodburn—A meeting of property owners along East Lincoln street will be called shortly, according to plans of the city council, to discuss the necessity of improving the street which was seriously damaged during the freezing and thawing of last winter. May 3 is the deadline set for receiving petitions for street improvements to be made this summer. The council has formally accepted the improvements on North 1st, Gatch and Oak streets.

Woodburn—Election of officers will be held today at meeting of the Woodburn Parent-Teachers association at the high school. Members of the nominating committee appointed by President Lyman Seely are Howard Quigley, Mrs. Lyman Seely and Mrs. Mary Blewans. Installation will be at the May meeting.

West Salem—Five members of Kingwood post 81, American Legion, and the auxiliary attended the district American Legion conference in Newberg Sunday. Going were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hastings, post commander and auxiliary commander respectively. Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Long and Mrs. Iva Moberly.

Turner—Members of Victoria chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will observe the 47th anniversary of the chapter Wednesday night. Past matrons will be honored at the meeting.

British Candy Off Ration List

LONDON, April 25—(AP)—Candy came off the ration Sunday after seven dreary years. This was big news among the youngsters of Britain today.

The confectioners' windows looked wonderful.

Some large candy companies were remembering that, while the ration ticket is in the discard, quite a few children haven't got a savings bank to raid. So, all around the country, thousands of pounds of candy were distributed free.

Valley Obituaries

Clara Mae March—Funeral services were held at the Howe-Huston funeral home Sunday for Clara Mae March, 78, who died at her home here Friday morning following a short illness. Interment was in the IOOF cemetery in Lebanon. Clara Mae Proctor, daughter of Joseph and Adeline Proctor, was born Oct. 2, 1870 at Knowlton, Wis. On March 27, 1887 she was married to Herbert F. March at Sherman, Wis. Coming to Oregon in 1900, the couple lived in various communities while Mr. March was engaged in the lumber business. The couple came to Sweet Home five years ago where they have since resided. On March 20, they observed their 62nd wedding anniversary at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Houck.

She is survived by her husband, Herbert F. March; one daughter, Mrs. Leda A. Houck, Sweet Home, and one son, Chester H. March, Portland. Other survivors are a brother, Grant March, Leaburg; a sister, Hattie March, Sheridan; four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.
