

Married at Home Rites

At an afternoon ceremony on April 16 Miss Jacqueline M. Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Wilson, became the bride of Donald W. Converse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eltham E. Converse. The nuptials took place at the Chemeketa street home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Murdock. The couple exchanged their vows before a full length mirror banked with arrangements of spring flowers.

Mr. Wilson gave his daughter in marriage and for her wedding she chose a slate blue suit with black straw hat with pink taffeta ribbon trim and black accessories. She carried a nosegay of pastel flowers.

Miss Dorisjean Shafer was the honor maid and wore a pink gabardine suit with toast colored straw hat and accessories. She also carried a pastel nosegay. Mr. Converse stood with his son as best man.

The newlyweds went south to San Francisco on their honeymoon, where the groom is stationed with the navy. The bride has returned to Salem and will remain here until she is able to join her husband.
