BALTIMORE, May 11-(P)-The railbirds at old Pimlico were claiming today that a bay speedster named Noble Impulse is go-ing to have a lot to say about the 73rd running of the famed Preakhorses which skipped the Kentucky derby last week and waited for the field to shape up for Saturday's $75,000-added Preakness, Post time is 4:15 p.m. (1:15 p.m.

While waiting, the col! warmed up Monday by accounting for the Survivor stakes at Pimlico, winning in track record time. He zipped the mile and one-sixteenth In 1:42 flat under 119 pounds to earn his shot at the mile and three - sixteenths Preakness All starters, and it looks like eight or nine, will have to carry 128 in the Preakness

Thus, while the Preakness lust Olympia—the derby speed horse it gained Noble Impulse This could cause a general revision of strategy for Maryland's biggest horse race. Capot showed he had the speed to run Olympia down at Louisville Now there will be Cappt and Noble Impulse to provide a fast pace for the Preak-pulse and Greetree's Capot, second horse in the derby, also could of Calumet Farm's derby champ.

Olympia knocked each other out, but the Calumet colt also can get up there is the occasion requires. Pinder move up past ('app' to take second back of the flying Olympia. The derby was at a mile and
