

Pedee Installs PTA Officers; Skit Presented

PEDÉE—Mrs. Elton Zuber was installed a president of the Parent Teachers association at the meeting held Friday evening. Mrs. Jack Wells, outgoing local president and Polk county council president, was the installing officer.

Other officers installed included Mrs. Veri Spessia, first vice president; Mrs. Eldon Cates, second vice president; Mrs. Gordon Murphy, secretary and treasurer. All new officers were presented with a gardenia by the installing officer.

A program consisting of a skit by primary room, piano solos, songs and readings was given by school children. Laura Oziah of Dallas played her electric steel guitar and Ronald Craven of Salem sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Six men modeled ladies clothing for a style show and Elton Zuber was chosen "Queen for a Night" in the show. Proceeds from the sale of pies and a fish pond netted the treasury $104.

The "Busy Hands" 4-H sewing club under their leader Mrs. Sidney Howard, exhibited their sewing. Those exhibiting articles were Jacqueline Hays, Betty Smith, Willie Jane Birchall, Janice Smith, Judy Anderson, Clarice Stepper, Carol Clark Kay Wells, Marie Wellman and Gladia Hill.

Johnson, program chairman, has planned the following program: Songby men's quartet, Henry Quiring, Ned Fransen, Harry Quiring and Sol Edgar, reading by Joan Theiss, solo horn numbers by Wayne Johnston, Ernest Edgar, Jim Gilson, Bill Dommoy and Harry Gilliam and Wayne Hinkelthal; piano, Ernest Edgar; motion picture of Oregon scenery; solo by Mrs. Robert Dornhecker; reading by Mrs. John Catalan; solo by Dale Sherwood and feature picture "Allice in Wonderland."

Mrs. Archie Brown and Mrs. Tom Keller are on the refreshment committee and coffee and cake will be served.

Jefferson Council Okehs Purchase Of Meter Boxes

JEFFERSON—Many civic matters occupied the city council at their May meeting Monday night. Authorization was given to purchase 100 concrete water meter boxes. Burt Kelly will make them. The Rev. George Richardson was granted permission to remove the pews along the south border of the city hall property. Ordinance 216 regulating dance halls here was tabled indefinitely. R. S. Sloan was given a permit to build a house on Second street across from the school house.

Saturday, May 21 was designated annual spring cleanup day, and householders are asked to have all trash in sacks or boxes and placed at street or alley accessible to the pickup truck.

The budget committee will meet Monday night, May 16, at the Paul McKee home. On the committee are E. B. Knight, Maurice Townsend, Irving Wright, Marvin Hutchings, O. A. Hall and Russell Daulton. The city also voted to take up a warrant amounting to $615, plus interest.

The Jefferson Volunteer Fire department met Tuesday night and set Sunday, July 17, as the date for the first annual firemen's community picnic. It will be held in the Grenz grove across the river.

Mothers Feted At Stayton KC; 500 Attended

STAYTON—More than 175 mothers were honored Sunday at the Knights of Columbus Mothers day program here at the parish hall.

At the breakfast, Rev. Father Gabriel of Mt. Angel gave the principal address, touching upon the theme of "Mother." Decorations of the breakfast carried as its theme the old spinning wheel, and the entire program was an outstanding success.

At 11 o'clock the same day the conferring of the three degrees of the order was conducted at the Foresters' hall in Stayton, under the direction of Grand Knight Vincent Mertz and State Deputy Sylvester J. Smith.

The officers of Portland council conducted the first and second degrees and the major degree was conducted by Past State Deputy Edward J. Bell, assisted by L. A. "Bud" O'Neill of Portland.

Following the initiation, a dutch lunch was served by the local luncheon committee, and it is anticipated that over 500 Knights and their ladies were in Stayton on Mothers day for the day's program.
