

Poppy Day Plans Mapped by Mt. Angel's Legion Auxiliary

MT. ANGEL — Poppy Day in Mt. Angel as well as over all Oregon will be Friday and Saturday, May 27 and 28. The Mt. Angel unit proposed to sell 1500 of the little red paper poppies that recall the sacrifices of Flanders Fields and provide extra funds to the disabled Veterans.

General plans for the sale were mapped out at the Legion Auxiliary meeting Tuesday night. Mrs. Joseph Faulhaber is chairman and will be assisted by the following volunteer workers: Mrs. Fred Prosser, Mrs. Ernie Crowder, Loretta Dehler, Mrs. Peter Gores, Mrs. Cletus Butsch, Mrs. Charles Hafner, Mrs. Mae Haggie, Miss Elizabeth Unger and the Junior auxiliary members: Mary Lynn Hauth, Geraldine and Monica Traeger, Mary Lou Faulhaber and Catherine Duman.

Turner — Mrs. Nellie Gunning will entertain members of the WSCS Friday, May 13 at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. George Farris.

Sweet Home — The contract for the building of a new bridge and changing the channel of Amers creek on 14th avenue will be awarded May 17, City Manager Jess Parker announced. The improvement is expected to cost around $1,300.

The 7 and 8 grade pupils of St. Mary's school will also be called upon to sell poppies and the two children selling the most will be awarded prizes of $1.00 and 75c respectively.

Miss Theresa Dehler reported 13 poppy posters entered for the contest. The president appointed Mrs. Dale Plummer, Mrs. Helen Perillo and Mrs. Harry Borken-hagen as judges. Prizes of $1.00 and 75c were to be awarded in two divisions. In the 3 and 6 grade division the prizes were won by Jerome Ender, first and Elaine Worley, second, and in the 7 and 8 division the first prize went to Laura Schmitz and the second to Anita Wilde.

The 4-H scholarship for summer school at Oregon State will again be awarded to the girl ranking the highest score in 4-H activities.

The social meeting on May 24 will honor the mothers of the post and unit, the gold star mothers being special guests. It was agreed to play bingo for entertainment and to award prizes to the winners. Lunch will be served with a special cake for the gold star mothers. Miss Theresa Dehler and Mrs. Joseph Faulhaber, poppy poster and poppy chairman will be in charge of the games and the following committee has been appointed to take care of the lunch: Mrs. A. Sanfeld, chairman, Mrs. Elvay Walker, Mrs. Al Stapfel, Mrs. Bernice Stafford and Mrs. Ann Schmitz.

A report on the Auxiliary given by the chairman, Mrs. Goss Hoffer, showed it to have been a wonderful success with a $100 profit. A vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Hoffer and those who assisted her.

The nominating committee proposed the following names for officers for the following year: President, Mrs. Dale Plummer; 1st vice president, Mrs. Fred Prosser; 2nd vice president, Mrs. Charles Hafner; secretary, Mrs. Crowder; treasurer, Mrs. Gores; chaplain, Mrs. A. G. Traeger; sergeant-at-arms, Mrs. Katherine Erwert; historian, Mrs. Helen Perillo.

It was announced that Mrs. Alma Unger would make an interesting trip to Hollywood at the June 14 meeting.

Mrs. Haggie gave a report on the county assembly held at Woodburn on April 22 which was attended by 12 Mt. Angel representatives.

After the business session the past presidents of the local unit held initiation services for the following new members: Mrs. Harold Bourbonnais, Mrs. James Bourbonnais, Mrs. Helen Perillo and Mrs. Mary Schwan.

FLIES HOME IN NEW PLANE SWEET HOME — T. R. Spencer, with his mother, Mrs. Amelia Dieitz, has been visiting friends in Phoenix, Arizona. From Phoenix he went to Huston, Texas, where he purchased a new Swift plane and flew back to Oregon, Friday. Mrs. Dieitz is scheduled to return by auto at a later date.
