SEATTLE, May 20-(AP)-The Northern Division track meet starts at 1:45 p.m. tomorrow with the pole vault, but there may be action in the morning if coaches of the six competing schools fail to agree on scratches.

There are eight lanes on the University of Washington cinder path, where Oregon, Washington State, Idaho Oregon State, Montana and the host school will chase the division pennant.

Ten gallopers have been entered in each of three short races the 440, 220 and the low hurdles. An even dozen have been nominated for the 100 yard dash

The coaches will meet at 9:30 am and the to cull the lists to eight in each event. Idaho has thine men down for the 440 and may scratch one. Washington or Montana may provide the other elimination, dropping one of their two candidates. In the 100, where three scratches will be needed, they could come from Oregon, Oregon State. Washington or Montaus. Idaho has only one man lised. Oregon has three. WSC is nor likely to drop either Dick Keniston or Eduie Pillings, both consectent point getters for the Oregon State may consent to a scratch in the 220, but where the offer paring may come is a prob-Montana and Washington have entered only one man each The time other schools will be relustant to split their pairs.

The low hurdle event may be to eight men without trouble. Tr a Burke who has been ailing far it likely to go for Washington. Itaho, WSc and Montana are the others with two men and any one start can be in two ranks, there will be no problem. There are 19. W. Hooper's Olympia, leader at one mile in the Kentucky derby. and Crispin Oglebay's Noble Impulse, who towed the field past the mile mark in the Preakness. will book up at Belmont park tomorrow in a race covering exactly that distance.

The two speed boys were among seven thoroughbreds selected by their owners today to start in the 74th running of the Withers stakes, a Belmont fixture for three-year-olds carrying $25,000 in added money.

While racing enthusiasts confidently expect the one-mile feature to develop into a two-horse race five others accepted the
