Church Celebrates 50th Year

WOODBURN, May 20.—This church is the home of St. Luke's Catholic church here, which will celebrate its golden jubilee Sunday, commemorating its founding 50 years ago. It was learned this week that the church bell was installed in March, 1902, with John McGrath and Barbara Stirber as two of the four sponsors. Those two were the first couple married in the first church on June 17, 1902. They now reside in Portland. Their son, the Rev. Joseph McGrath, CSC, was the first Woodburn native to be ordained to the priesthood.

Woodburn Catholics to Note Anniversary at Mass Sunday

WOODBURN, May 20.—The golden jubilee of St. Luke's Catholic parish here will be celebrated Sunday with the Most Rev. Edward D. Howard, a bishop of Portland, offering the pontifical high mass at 10:30 a. m.

The Rev. Martin Doherty of Gervais will give the occasional sermon and assisting will be the Rev. V. L. Mollenbeier, pastor of St. Luke's; the Rev. Thomas Meier, abbot of Mt. Angel abbey; the Rev. Gabriel Morris, principal of Mt. Angel preparatory; the Very Rev. Martin Pollard, prior of the abbey; the Very Rev. Justin Reilly, rector of Mt. Angel seminary; the Rev. Boniface Aicher, the Rev. Kevin Coyle, the Rev. Hildebrand Melchior from St. Mary's parish; the Rev. Thomas Brockhaus and the Rev. Richard Galvin, Robert Notman and Thomas Miller from the Woodburn parish will be homilists for the archbishop.

Twenty-five seminarians from the abbey choir under the direction of the Rev. Dennis Marks will sing. The Rev. Frater David will be at the organ.

The Woodburn parish choir of 15 male voices with Mrs. Marie Donnelly at the organ and under the direction of the Rev. F. J. Hanley will also sing.

From 25 to 30 families attended St. Luke's church when founded in 1899 while the present family units total 320.

Nine people will be present who attended St. Luke's when it was founded. They are Joseph McCormick, Jim McCormick, Mrs. Gertrude McCormick, Mrs. Mary Cyril (McCormick) Crosby, Mary Hershberger, Mrs. Paul Sowa and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nibler, all of whom are still living in Woodburn, and Mr. and Mrs. John W. McGrath, now living in Portland.

Durden to Attend Baptist Meetings

Dr. Charles Durden, pastor of Calvary Baptist church, is to leave Salem Wednesday for San Francisco to attend board and committee meetings prior to opening of the annual Northern Baptist convention there May 30 to June 3. Durden is a member of the board of education and the home missions board.

Several lay members of the congregation also plan to attend the convention, but will not leave until later.

Catholic Retreats Slated for Laymen
