

Evening of Music on Tuesday

An interesting event of the coming week will be the evening of music for which Mr. and Mrs. James C. Stone will be hosts on Tuesday night at the Stone Piano company at 8 o'clock. The Stones have sent out invitations to their friends to the affair.

Appearing on the program will be Josephine Albert Spaulding, mezzo-soprano, well known Salem soloist, who will be accompanied by Lucille Schramm and Dana McCann, organist, a newcomer. Miss McCann is a graduate of Michigan State college and formerly was fashion advisor with the Butterick Co. in New York City. During the war she was with the Red Cross in San Francisco. She played the piano before she began studying organ with William Fawk shortly after her arrival in Salem three years ago. A reception will follow the music with Mr. and Mrs. Stone and the artists receiving the guests. Miss Alice Crary Brown will preside at the punch bowl and Mrs. David Eason will be at the coffee urn. Assisting will be Mrs. Frank Fisher, Mrs. George Hill, Mrs. Stuart Lancelfield, Mrs. Kenneth G. Manning, Mrs. Glenn Stevens, Mrs. Harold Busick, Mrs. George S. Miller, Mrs. Wheeler R. English and Mrs. Alfred Gerling-er.

Rotana has New Officers

A formal banquet was held at Nohlgren's May 6 to install new officers for the Salem Rotana club. Mrs. L. L. Rigas of the Portland Rotana club installed the new officers. She has done this each year since the Salem club was organized.

Special music included vocal solos by Miss Ariene Hilfiker with Miss Beverly Gustafson as her accompanist.

Mrs. Lester Thomas presided at the banquet. Her committee arranged individual May baskets for each of the guests.

A gift was presented to Mrs. Herbert Miller, retiring president. Presentation was made by Miss Ada Hill, national president for Rotana.

New officers for the local club include: president, Miss Lorenz; first vice president, Mrs. Alfred Laine; second vice president, Mrs. Enos Nelson; secretary, Mrs. Fannie Douglas; treasurer, Mrs. S. L. Auman; board member, Mrs. Jack Brown.

Miss Jack appointed the following committee chairmen for the year: membership, Mrs. Fannie Douglas; finance, Mrs. Chester Peters; entertainment, Mrs. S. L. Auman; public relations, Miss Vada Hill; girls' work, Mrs. George W. Bagnall; publicity, Mrs. Grant Farris; education, Mrs. Lyle Rains; welfare, Mrs. J. L. Stanton; year book, Mrs. Alfred Laine.

The club discussed plans for the national convention which is to be held in Salem on July 28 and 29. Headquarters for the convention will be at the Marion hotel.

A number of guests attended the banquet, including Miss Martine Ogilvie, president of the Portland Rotana club, and Miss Kathryn Reed, vice president of that group.

Miss Bedford to Present Pupils

Miss Ruth Bedford will present a group of her senior high school and ninth grade piano students in recital Wednesday night, May 25, at 8 p. m. at the Roberts studio, 505 North Summer street.

They will be assisted by Homer Davenport, pianist, student of Emma Bamber and Mrs. Ronald Craig, a pianist.

Don't Look... Now

but... we wonder what's happened up at the state house this past year. When they planned this new building they left a lot of trees. Now this is not according to the previous rule and we wonder why. Just think how much nice cordwood that group of trees on the parking would have made—and then they could have planted some nice sissy ornaments in their place.

Or maybe... they want to move some of them here and there. Remember the last moving episode? It would have been funny if it weren't so inexpensive.

Poor old thing... just about the only time we feel our age is when the editorial staff asks our opinion on pioneer pictures or stories. Though we can often give the answer identifying a saloon or other place of business in a picture of the early 1900s is a bit revealing.

of them here and there. Remember the last moving episode? It would have been funny if it weren't so inexpensive.

Seen and Heard...

HEADED EAST... Interesting trip ahead for Mrs. David H. Cameron, who leaves on June 3 for Indianapolis to attend the supreme session of the Daughters of the Nile. Mrs. Cameron is a member of the Nile chapters of Nyota Terrace, which will sing at the session. She also is a chorus member of the Nyota Terrace chapter of Portland's former St. James.

The Portland delegation will board the special train at Seattle. From Indianapolis Mrs. Cameron and Mrs. Lester will go on to New York, where they will be registered at the Waldorf-Astoria and while there will be entertained by Mrs. Willard Wright, widow of the mystery writer, S. S. Vandynne. Mrs. Cameron will visit with relatives in Pennsylvania and return via the southern route, stopping in New Orleans and Los Angeles. She plans to be away nearly six weeks.

Also east bound in early June will be Mrs. Ralph Parryne and children, Billy and Becky, who will visit for two months in Winona, Minn., with her parents, and Mrs. Tom Dunham and son, Tommy, who are headed for Milwaukee, Wis., and Chicago to visit her family.

FAMILY VISITS... Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Wiles and daughter, Nancy, are leaving here by plane Wednesday for Detroit, Chicago and New York. In the latter city they will visit with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Steele Waterhouse, and in Rockville, Illinois, will be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wiles.

After a month's trip they will return home by air. Flying to Boise on Wednesday will be Mrs. Ferre, Holmes and sons, and girls, Beverly, who she will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elia Hartley in Pasco and on June 8 when Dr. Holmes will visit his family. From there they will drive to Natoma, Parsons and Salina, Kansas, to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bodmer, who reside in Natoma.

They will return to Salem at the end of June, stopping enroute at Yellowstone National park.

FROM THE NATION'S CAPITOL... comes news of a luncheon Mrs. Guy Gordon, wife of Senator Gordon, and Mrs. Harris Ellsworth, wife of Representative Ellsworth, gave at the Army and Navy Country club in Virginia, just over the line from the District of Columbia, in honor of their Roseburg house guests, Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly and Mrs. J. C. Hamie.

Among the luncheon guests were wives of members of the Oregon delegation... Mrs. Wayne Morse, Mrs. Lowell Stockman, Mrs. Homer Angell and Mrs. Walter Norblad. Mrs. Morse will soon be leaving for Oregon after laughter, Nancy's graduation.

Nancy will be the only one in the family to remain in Oregon in the fall as she will begin her freshman year at the University of Oregon. Mrs. Norblad, who will be in Salem later in the summer with her congressman husband, recently went on a tour of one of Washington's largest districts... she was one of four mothers accompanying 60 school children of which her son, Albin, was one.

Following the tour each youngster wrote a thank-you note to a mother of his choice and Albin was mighty proud of his mother, who received the most letters.

HOME AGAIN... is Mrs. Gertrude Reaney, president of the Salem Junior Women's club and only Junior club delegate from Oregon to the National Federation at Women's club convention at Hollywood Beach, Florida, last month.

Eleanor enjoyed every minute of the trip. Among the highlights... dining at the fabulous new Shamrock hotel recently opened at Houston, Texas... the hotel ultra modern... too much so according to some of the comments she heard... all wood paneling in the lobby and leather furniture... comfortable but certainly not luxurious... the huge pool, most popular and all rooms taken that particular day.

She even had time to browse through the antique shops and court restaurants in New Orleans. She visited the navy base at Key West... walked both ends of the board walk at Atlantic City, enjoying it immensely and not missing a thing... seeing the sights in New York City and attended stage plays and shows at Radio City and Music all... Convention headquarters at the lovely Hollywood Beach hotel... but the convention hall itself very warm and not air conditioned... grand meals and beautiful favors at every event for all... Junior club women represented from 22 states.

After the convention Eleanor sojourned at Miami Beach for several days, sunning and swimming every day... even time for a plane trip to Havana... and the only familiar face on the whole trip was when she boarded the plane for home... Mayor Dorothy McCullough Lee of Portland, who got on at Chicago.

GARDEN RECEPTION... a week ago at the Frank Burlingham home following the Mu Phi Epsilon concert... A lovely sunny day and guests strolling about the sloping garden which borders the creek... many enjoying their coffee on the terrace... Mrs. Burlingham and Mu Phi prexy, Betty Kuhlman, receiving in the living room... here gorgeous bouquets of painted daisies, iris and blossoms... The serving table centerpiece of red carnations, roses, snapdragons and baby callas.

Among those present... Mrs. Melvin Gast in a becoming grey crepe gown with violets at the waistline... Mrs. Frank Fisher, stunning in a bottle green satin sliver gown, attracting Mrs. Ellwood Ball wearing white satin with pastel floral print design all over... Black the choice of Mrs. Denise Murray... Brunette Bernice Isham in white and greeting guests at the door... Violets atop Mrs. George Allen's black hat... Mrs. William H. Lytle smart in a carnation green suit... her matching hat with perky feather trim.

IN THE SOUTH... now visiting with the Kellon Lowers (Molly Jean Maitson) is Miss Betty Childs of Portland and Salem. Betty arrived this week end in Jackson, Mississippi to spend her month's vacation with the Lowers... Molly Jean and Betty plan to go over to Corpus Christi, Texas to visit the former's brother, Lt. Mack Maitson, who has taken an apartment for the two during their stay... Mack usually flies over to Jackson on week ends to visit his sister.

Portland Garden club's flower show sale and tea at the Dunthorpe home of Mr. and Mrs. Jopp W. Blodgett, Jr.

The Booster club of St. Mark Lutheran church will meet at 8 o'clock Monday night for entertainment and a social hour. The committee is Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sather, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Torgerson, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Stegenthaler, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Soderstrom and Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart.
