

Women's Section

SOCIETY • CLUBS • MUSIC

Oregon's capital city is the new home of the Gordon Brewer family. Pictured with Mrs. Brewer are the couple's three daughters: Beverly, Ann and Janet. Dr. Brewer is associated with the Salem Clinic as eye ear nose and throat specialist. Portland, Wisconsin, is the former home of the Brewers. (Kennell Ellis)

A Luncheon

Mrs. John L. Franzen will preside at a one o'clock luncheon on Tuesday afternoon at her North 21st street home for members of her bridge club from Oregon City and a few Salem friends. Cards will be in play after the luncheon hour.

Covers will be placed for Mrs. Ray Bilance, Mrs. Ivan Hanneford, Mrs. Raymond Howell, Mrs. Richard Kinley, Mrs. Gordon McKinnon, Mrs. Grace Osborn, Mrs. Willa McCausland, Mrs. Robert Pelkey, Mrs. R. Holman, Mrs. John Collier, Mrs. George Swafford, all of Oregon City, Mrs. Abner K. Kline, Mrs. Charles H. Fowler, Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr. and Mrs. Clyde Warren, all of Salem.

Plans Told . . .

Plans have been completed for the wedding of Miss Jeanne DeMytt, daughter of Leo J. DeMytt and Harold Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Creasy. The couple will exchange their vows at a morning ceremony on Thursday, June 2 at St. Joseph's Catholic church with Father T. J. Bernards officiating at the 10 o'clock nuptial mass.

Mr. DeMytt will give his youngest daughter in marriage and she has asked Miss Corinne Wade to be her honor attendant. Alan Tompkins will serve as best man for Mr. Gardner.

A wedding breakfast for the bridal party and two families will be held at the Senator hotel. The couple will leave Salem, Miss DeMytt, who is employed at Miller Electric Co., was honored at a bridal shower and tea when members of the office force of the store entertained.

Newcomers being welcomed in the capital are Mrs. St. Elmo Massengale and ten-month-old daughter, Bender, who recently came here from Oregon with Mr. Massengale, who has purchased the location on the South River road at the former Harley Bester place. (Kennell Ellis)

Au Revoir Luncheon to Fete Matron . . .

By Jermy English, Society Editor

Mrs. Grant C. Rogers will be a hostess on Friday afternoon at her South 24th street home for an au revoir party in compliment to Mrs. David H. Cameron. Mrs. Cameron is leaving in early June for Indianapolis to attend the supreme session of the Daughters of the Nile as a member of the chorus of Nydia Temple. Mrs. Cameron will also visit in the east and south before returning home.

A group of Mrs. Cameron's friends have been invited to a one o'clock social at 7 p.m., after which contract bridge will be in play. Bouquets of roses and other flowers will provide the decorative note on the tables, and absinth will be served.

Bidden by the hostess to honor Mrs. Cameron are: Mrs. David W. H. Mr. Gloria B. Brennan, Mrs. T. M. Dougherty, Mrs. Claude H. Macpherson, Mrs. Guy N. Fisher, Mrs. Evelyn Fisher, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, Mrs. John C. Strickland, Mrs. George V. Thompson, Mrs. C. I. W. Chambers, Mrs. Kari E. Kugel, Mrs. Estill L. Brunk, Mrs. Charles A. C. Phillips, Mrs. Mrs. Richard Kinley of Oregon City, Mrs. Marjorie J. Hill of Eugene, Mrs. Mrs. M. K. Cameron and her daughter, Mrs. Donald Nagel of Longview, Mrs. C. J. Giese, Mrs. H. Lawrence Laster and Mrs. Myron V. Feig of Portland, the latter a daughter of the hostess.

Here for an extended visit are Mrs. Lynn F. Cronmiller, mother and daughter Nancy Jean, pictured above. Lt. Cronmiller, who is with the army air force, left Monday for Hamilton Field, where he will leave for duty in the east. His family plans to join him in the fall. Mrs. Cronmiller and wife will divide their time between the senior Cronmiller home and with her father, Dr. Frederick H. Thompson, and mother, Mrs. Nora Thompson. (Kennell Ellis)

Recent visitors in the capital from Anchorage, Alaska at the 21st were Mrs. Robert C. Barnett and daughters, Glenna and Robbie. The Barnetts formerly made their home in Salem and he is a dispatcher with the Alaskan Airlines and this past year the family has been living on a homestead near Anchorage. While in Salem the Barnetts visited with his parents and they are now in Portland at the home of her parents, the Quay Wassams, formerly of Salem. (Kennell Ellis)

Au revoirs are being said to Mrs. John Dann, at the night who is leaving the first of June for Coos Bay with Mr. Dann to make her home. He has been engaged in the real estate business here and will operate his own enterprise in the southern Oregon city. Mrs. Dann has been an active member of the Socurers, since shortly after its organization here. (Kennell Ellis)

Salem Man To Take Bride . . .

A wedding of interest to the couple's many Salem friends is planned for Sunday, June 12 when Miss Marilyn Logan, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Noble H. Logan of Oakland, Calif., becomes the bride of William Loren Ready, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merlin W. Ready of Salem. The ceremony will take place in the garden of the Logan home in Oakland.

The bride-elect will graduate in June from Mills college, where she is an English major. Her sister, Beverly Logan, and his sister, Beverly Jo Ready, will be her attendants. Donald Dye of Watsonville, Calif., will stand with the benedict-elect as best man.

Mr. Ready is majoring in business administration at Willamette university and is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. The couple will live in San Jose and he will continue his college work.

Miss Logan has many friends in Salem, having often visited here at the home of her father's parents and at the Ralph H. Cooley and Donald C. Roberts homes. She was a Mills college classmate of Miss Margaret Cooley and Mrs. Robert E. Mays (Georgia Roberts).

