Shirlee Kinnane A Bride

Miss Shirlee Kinnane and David Key of Seattle exchanged their marriage vows at an afternoon ceremony on Sunday at the Court Street Christian church. The Rev. W. H. Lyman performed the 3 o'clock nuptials before a setting of pink and white snapdragons, fern and palms. Mrs. Arthur C. Hill of Seattle, sister of the groom, and Miss Martha Weller lighted the tapers. Miss Beverly Lyman sang before the bridal party entered and Mrs. Walter Naff was the organist. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Moen and her bridal gown was of white nylon marquisette fashioned with fitted bodice and yoke enhanced with lace and a marquisette ruffle. The full skirt was designed with insets of the lace and a wide ruffle of the marquisette edged the skirt and train. Her lace trimmed finger tips veil was caught to a Juliet cap of pink roses, bouvardia and stephanotis. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Preceding the bride to the altar were Miss Lorna Hill of Mineral, Wash., and Miss Betty Ann Huhn of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, as bridesmaids, and Mrs. Weston LaMun-son, the matron of honor. They all wore identical frocks of pink tulle organza made with bouffant skirts, fitted bodices and small capes edged with white ruffled net and mits of the white net. Her bouquets and headbands were of pink sweetpeas. Marlie Sebern was flower girl.

Douglas Bates of Seattle was best man and ushers were A. C. Hill of Seattle and Darrell Herren. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Moen wore a green ensemble with hat and gloves of mauve pink and corsage of roses. The groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Key of Seattle, came down for their son's marriage and she chose a pearl grey crepe ensemble with matching accessories and corsage of carnations.

The newlyweds greeted guests at a reception in the church parlors. Mrs. Leo J. Kinnane and Mrs. W. H. Lyman poured. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Henry Brandon and Mrs. Rennie Brandon of Seattle. Assisting were Misses Pauline Moen, Mary Weller, Florence Brock, Annie Michael, Jeanne Doolittle, Eleanor Moen and Mrs. Darrell Herren.

When the couple left on their wedding trip the bride donned a white dress with navy blue topper and navy and white accessories. Mr. Key and his bride will sail on the S. S. Denali on June 9 for Kodiak, Alaska, where he will be employed for the summer. In the fall they will return to Tacoma to live, where both will complete their studies at the College of Puget Sound.

Among the out-of-town guests here for the nuptials were Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Kinnane and Mrs. Neil Rotruck, great-aunt of the bride, all of Seattle.

Add Waistline

Nothing makes us want to talk and write about lovely rich desserts any more than looking at ourselves in the mirror and seeing how old age and perfect health are conspiring to add girth to an already ample waistline.

Take gelatine for instance. Most children and many adults like jelled salads and desserts, if you don't believe it, watch the gelatine concoctions cleaned out in a hurry at a cafeteria. General rule of course is one package of flavored gelatine or 1 tablespoon plain, to a pint of liquid. The latter can be fruit juice or water. Simplest gelatine dessert is the fruited one, and probably the most popular too. Whipping the gelatine before adding the fruit, but after it's getting a little syrupy doubles the volume and adds some style.

You can pile the whipped up gelatine on fruit or during the strawberry season, crust some and pour over the top, garnishing with a little whipped cream.

If you want a layered gelatine it's easy to get. Simply combine raw and cooked fruits in the mixture. The cooked fruits are put in first, and will sink to the bottom. The raw fruits will rise, as will the nuts.
